DR. PRATT ON THE GENIUS OF DEMOCRACY

Memorial day was more generally observed in this city Saturday than upon any previous occasion in the history of our municipality. While hundreds of citizens took the day from their office or workshop, there were few who kept it in the manner that was intended by those who, years ago, made it a season in which all our people should lay aside the usual amusements of the holiday and mourn with the surviving veteran over the heroes gone before.

The morning was devoted to the work of decorating the soldiers' graves in the outlying cemeteries, and long before noon there was not a burying ground in or around the city that had not been decked out with flags and a token of remembrance in the shape of a wreath of green and a bouquet of flowers upon the grave of every soldier buried there. The task was performed by committee from the Grand Army and sub-committees from the Sons of Veterans. The wreaths and flowers, as has been customary for many years, had been prepared by the ladies of the Relief Corps several days before.

The condition of the Wellsville lodge of Sons of Veterans has prevented it from carrying on the work of decorating, and each year a detail from this city has gone to that town on the morning of Memorial day, where they assisted the Grand Army with the ceremonies. This year the representatives from East Liverpool were larger than ever before and the aid given was appreciated by the Wellsville people.

Captain W. F. Dawson had been selected as master of ceremonies in this city, and was early on the ground. Arrangements had been made for the interested orders to assemble at the Grand Army hall on Fifth street at 1 o'clock, and long before that time the members were on the ground, and half an hour later were ready to start for the cemetery. The line was formed on Fifth street, right resting on Market. The procession was headed by the Sons of Veterans' drum corps, the Grand Army having the position of honor at the front. The Sons had 40 men in line, fully uniformed and equipped.

The line proceeded out Fifth street to Broadway; Broadway to Fourth; Fourth to Market; to East Market, where the Grand Army left the procession.

ALL IN READINESS
FOR CONVENTIONHARMONY WILL RULE THE RE-PUBLICAN MEETING.Agreement Reached as to Candidates for Leading Places—Endorsement for Roosevelt.

From a Staff Correspondent.
Columbus, June 1.—All preparations have been made for the big Republican state convention which will be held in this city Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Many delegates and some of the leaders will be here tomorrow, but the great bulk will not arrive until Wednesday. It will be the largest attended convention yet held by the Republicans.

Senators Hanna and Foraker and all the Ohio congressmen will be here and the gathering will be somewhat like a love feast.

As temporary chairman of the convention Senator Hanna will sound the keynote and will probably furnish the slogan for the campaign. Senator Foraker will be the permanent chairman. It is expected that the convention will decide to place the constitutional amendments on the ballot, in which act it is likely the Democratic state convention will concur in part at least. Roosevelt will be endorsed for another term.

LIFE EXAGGERATED.Kansas Floods Subside, Though Situation is Still Bad at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., June 1.—(Special.)—There is no improvement in the flood situation. The river rose five feet during the night. All business is suspended. Probably a dozen lives have been lost to date. The situation is desperate in Kansas City, Kan., which is completely cut off.

Topeka, Kan., June 1.—It is now believed that the total number lost in the flood here will not exceed 20. Only eight buildings were destroyed by fire. The early reports were unavoidably exaggerated. The Kaw river is falling and the worst is past. The homeless are well cared for. The property loss is now estimated at $1,000,000.

ANCHOR POTTERY
TIED UP BY STRIKEJiggermen at a Trenton Plant Went Out and Kilnmen Struck in Sympathy.

Trenton, N. J., June 1.—(Special.)—Because four jiggermen employed at the Anchor pottery, who were not members of the union, refused to join the latter, twelve union jiggermen at work there, went on a strike Friday morning and the kilnmen, numbering about 25 men, also went out, refusing to handle the ware made by the non-union jiggermen. By this action the entire plant was practically tied up and work would have had to be suspended within a day or two.

This is the first time in the history of the general ware potteries of this city that the jiggermen have appealed to the kilnmen in their trouble with the bosses or the other men, and the willingness with which the latter responded is an indication of the harmony which now exists in the local potteries' union.

PATTERSON ASKS
AN INJUNCTIONCarries His Fight Against C. A.
Smith's New Street Car
Line to Court.

NOTICES HAVE BEEN GIVEN

By the Sheriff of the Beginning of the Suit—The Franchise Ordinance Alleged to Be Invalid—City a Defendant.

Sheriff Chas. P. Leonard came to this city from the county seat Friday evening and served notice upon C. A. Smith, the projector of the new electric railway to the East End, by way of East Fifth street and Pennsylvania avenue, that a petition had been filed there by Monroe Patterson, through his attorneys, for an injunction against the carrying out of the plans of Smith and his associates.

Sheriff Leonard had some difficulty in locating Smith and it was quite late when the notice had been served.

The petition as filed by Mr. Patterson sets forth several reasons why the injunction should be granted. The attorneys connected with the case are Judge P. M. Smith, of Wellsville, and Squires, Sanders & Dempsey, of Cleveland. The document first says the city solicitor has been petitioned to make the application, but had failed to do so, forcing Patterson to do so himself in behalf of the city.

The plaintiff states that on account of a portion of the right of way being over land with respect to which the city had no jurisdiction the granting of the franchise was illegal. It is claimed the franchise should be granted by competitive bidding. The law required the council to give the privileges asked to the lowest bidder. This had not been done since the East Liverpool railway was the lowest bidder. The Smith route is to be constructed a part of the way on private right of way that could never be acquired by anyone else, and therefore the franchise could not be competed for fairly. As a matter of fact, the franchise had been advertised to be granted upon a competition basis when, by reason of Smith having control of private right of way, it would be impossible for any one but him to bid, the petition says.

The meeting at which the ordinance was passed was a special one, and the action taken alleged to be illegal, as all the members had not received notice that the meeting would be held. The petition ends by asking a restraining order to prevent C. A. Smith and his associates from executing or entering upon any contract for the construction or operation of the said railroad.

Mayor W. A. Weaver, Col. J. N. Taylor, W. L. Smith and Jacob Shenkel, of the public service board, are made the defendants and on them the sheriff served notice of the suit.

PUBLIC SERVICE
BOARD ESTIMATESMILLAGE THAT THE DEPART-
MENT WILL RECOMMEND.Ample Funds Provided if Economy
Rules—Condition of Streets
Discussed.

Estimates were made by the board of public service, at its meeting Friday night, for the millage necessary to operate the departments under its care. Following are the estimates to be reported to council:

Lights, general, 2; fire, 2.8; light, 2.1; police, 5; sanitary, 5.

While it was the prevailing idea with the members of the board in fixing the millage to prune all expenses to the lowest possible point, it is thought that if the proper economy is observed the funds provided will be ample. Auditor Davidson, City Engineer Kelly and City Solicitor Davidson were present and were called upon frequently for information relating to their departments. Engineer Kelly was instructed to furnish the board with a plot of the city, showing the location of all the street lights, which is to be used by the expert employed by the board.

Better fire protection for the West End pottery will be afforded by extending the water main from Seventh street to the plant.

The condition of the streets and alleys was discussed and Street Commissioner Dickey submitted a plan for keeping them free from filth and rubbish.

Council has asked the board to look into the matter of the obstruction and sewer stoppage on Pennsylvania avenue. The attention of the city engineer and street commissioner was directed to the matter.

Before the close of the meeting the members of the board were served by the sheriff with notice of the injunction proceedings against the projectors of the new East End electric railway by Sheriff Leonard.

Another meeting of the board will be held tonight.

THE POTTERS' PICNIC
AT ROCK SPRINGS PARK
IS A GREAT SUCCESSAttendance Not As Large As It Has Been, But
the Lack Is Made Up In Enthusiasm.

The annual Brotherhood picnic is being held at Rock Springs park this afternoon, and while the crowd is much smaller than has been known on other occasions, the potters and their friends are making up in enthusiasm and a determination to thoroughly enjoy the day, what they lack in numbers. The weather looked threatening this morning, and coupled with the fact that no arrangements could possibly be made for special rates or special trains on the C. & P., the attendance from other pottery towns was small.

There were a few operatives and their friends from Sebring, East Palestine, Toronto and Steubenville present. They took advantage of the fact that work was not brisk at this time to pay a visit to friends in this city, and are at the park this afternoon. It was expected that a large crowd would attend from New Cumberland, as an excursion rate had been obtained on the Panhandle, but very few came this morning. Quite a crowd came in this afternoon.

The large crowd thoroughly enjoyed the day, and the dancing and other amusements will be enjoyed until well into the night.

The general committee was composed of the following well known Brotherhood men: William Elder, chairman; T. J. Duffy, Edward Menge, Shel Moore, John Wood, A. S. Coleman, George Smith, William Adams, Sr. Each of the several departments was in charge of a competent man and able assistants.

The busiest place was the dancing pavilion. At 4 o'clock the base ball game between the jiggermen and pressers was scheduled to take place.

PAINFUL BURNS
WERE RECEIVEDIn Blazing House—Family Asleep in a Sebring Dwelling Gets Out with Great Difficulty.

Sebring, June 1.—A brick dwelling house was completely destroyed by fire at midnight, entailing a loss of $2,000. The building was owned by E. H. Sebring and was occupied by I. H. Blackman, his wife and her son, a young man named Carlton Smith, 25 years old, and employed as foreman at one of the china plants. Smith and his mother were seriously burned.

The origin of the fire is unknown. When the occupants, sleeping on the second floor, awoke, the stairway was in flames. Young Smith grasped his mother in his arms and carried her down the blazing stairway in safety, though both were terribly burned in the flames. The patients were at once taken to the Alliance hospital. It is not believed that he can survive. The mother will recover. Mr. Blackman leaped from the rear window and was uninjured. The family recently located here, coming from Bridgeport, Conn.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

TRENTON TRADE TOPICS.

Trenton, N. J., June 1.—(Special.)—Now that all the grievances which were given an airing at the convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters has been set aside with bright prospects for their peaceful solution, the members here in the east have again settled down to business and are considering plans for further increasing the membership of the organization within the coming year.

Encouraged by the work of Vice President Hutchins and the other national officers in adding 1,000 recruits to the forces of the organization, the members feel, that before next May, when the convention will be held, that every branch of the trade in this city will be thoroughly organized. Before long another effort will be made to affiliate the women workers, and in view of the large number in each shop, now capable of doing campaign work, it is likely that a local of the girls employed in the ware room and the other departments will be one of the largest in the Brotherhood. With the other branches of the trade there is still an abundance of work to do. Hardly any local, aside from the sanitary works, can boast of including every man employed in that particular branch, and the future campaign will be laid along these lines.

Interest in the adoption of a uniform price list by the several locals in this city is still paramount. The members are anxiously awaiting word from East Liverpool of the appointment of a conference committee, which will meet with the manufacturers to discuss the practicability of putting the scale into effect here.

Orders of a special nature are sustaining pottery manufacture here at present. Little business is coming through the regular trade channels except for immediate shipment in small quantities. The special trade, though, is heavy. Cereal concerns, public institutions and the like are providing an unusually heavy demand, which promises to keep the local plants quite active until well into the summer. There is also an encouraging demand on hotel china, especially that ware which is designed for rough usage of summer trade at seaside and mountain resorts. Lamps are enjoying a seasonable run of business. In a couple of factories the order files testify to better results than were attained a year ago.

It seems improbable that there will be a combined local exhibit of pottery at the St. Louis exposition. Two or three of the concerns, in fact, have already expressed a disinclination to shoulder the heavy expenses incident to the preparation of a respectable display. The Trenton Potters company will positively be an exhibitor in both sanitary and general ware lines. The sanitary exposition will naturally be of greater magnitude, although it also proposes to prepare some excellent specimens of its artistic capabilities in jardiniere, pedestals, umbrella stands, vases, jugs, tankards and the like.

William H. Tattler, of the Tattler Decorating company, has had enough of single blessedness. Miss Elizabeth Hughes, principal of the Girard avenue school, is the lady of his choice. The ceremony is announced to take place this month, after which Mr. and Mrs. Tattler will take up their residence at Hillcrest, a suburb of Trenton.

WILL HAVE AN EXHIBIT.

John Sant, local representative for several years of the leading clay and color firms, has secured space at the St. Louis exposition for an exhibit and is very enthusiastic over the opportunity thus presented of acquainting the American people with this great natural resource. In talking over the exhibition with a News Review reporter, Mr. Sant expressed surprise that the manufacturers were not more enthusiastic over the proposed exhibit. Some firm will secure a decided advantage if the others are not watchful. It is to be hoped that exhibits from the manufacturers of this city will be the same as their product, unsurpassed by any in the country.

SUMMER LOAF.

It is reported that the plants of the East Liverpool Potters company will be closed down for two weeks beginning Monday, June 8. It is thought by many that the loaf will be of at least a month's duration. The condition of trade is none too good and unless there is an improvement many of the plants can afford to remain idle a month.

AMONG THE WORKERS.

S. Orr, of Salineville, was a visitor here Saturday.

Will Hardy, of Derry, was here over Sunday with old friends.

Joseph Heckathorn, wife and child, of Lisbon, visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Heckathorn has a good situation with the Lisbon plant as dishwasher and reports business very satisfactory with his firm.

The members of the decorating department at Laughlin No. 3 are preparing for a fishing trip, under the leadership of Robert Parker. Mr. Parker will take his camera along and secure some of the pictures for which he is noted.

A Serious Mistake.

E. C. DeWitt & Co. is the name of the firm who make the genuine Witch Hazel Salve. DeWitt's is the Witch Hazel Salve that heals without leaving a scar. It is a curious mistake to use any other. cession and took cars on the Calcutta extension for Riverview cemetery. The Sons of Veterans marched the entire distance to the cemetery, arriving there in time to take their position in line. To the music of the dead march the procession proceeded to the mound, near the Memorial Chapel, where the ceremonies were held. Commander Dawson and Chaplain D. J. Smith had charge and the ritualistic work was impressively spoken.

The assemblage proceeded to the grove after the ceremonies, where a speaking stand had been erected, and where it was proposed to conclude the exercises with a memorial address by Rev. M. B. Pratt, pastor of the First M. E. church. The weather had been threatening all afternoon, and as the stand was in the open, affording no protection to the audience, it was suggested that the speaking should be postponed until the evening. It was so decided and the announcement was made from the platform that the observance of the day would be continued at the M. E. church in the evening, beginning at 8 o'clock.

When the ranks were dismissed after returning to the city it was arranged to meet at the hall again at 7 o'clock in the evening for the purpose of going in a body to Dr. Pratt's church. All the orders turned out early and marked to the church, where a very large audience listened to the following address by Dr. Pratt:

Today every garden in the land is growing flowers for the nation's fallen heroes; the orchestra of the woods chants requiem sublime, the solemn, reverent multitudes gather to give the tear of affection to their memory, to plant a flag upon their resting place, and to send forth eloquent eulogy in their honor. The very greatness of our land, covering a continent, and stretching out in blessing to the ends of the earth, teeming with prosperous, happy millions, with a government respected the world over, lends its mighty pen of praise to the nation's heroes, living and dead.

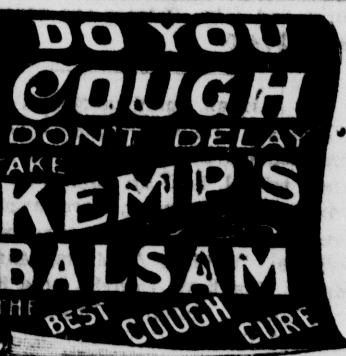

We are gathered to do honor to their memory and to learn from them those lessons they may so nobly impart to the sons of this great age. These waving banners, these lovely garlands, these waiting throngs, this grateful spirit that rises and swells within our souls today, these best words and noblest thoughts are our memorial to the nation's defenders.

"What mean ye by these memorials?" As I speak a vision unrolls before my mind. A great people reaching back from the ocean into the wilderness of the far west; the loud hum of industry, the cheerful call of the toiler, the happy notes of the children; the busy, prosperous millions dwell under our flag. But the croak of the raven answers our "Union and Liberty with his hoarse 'Nevermore.' The roar of treacherous gun rolls up from the south; our brothers are in arms against the nation. From the Potomac comes the call for volunteers.

The loud drum sounds to arms; the forum resounds with the echo; the pulpit takes up the call; the orchestras of Union and Liberty sound their loud overtures to war. The vision unrolls. Sturdy sons say good-bye and go with the blessing of home upon them. Men clasp wives and children in one large embrace and hasten away to don the blue and take up the musket.

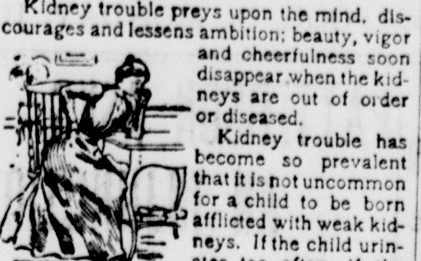

Loved ones stand peering through tear-dimmed eyes at departing heroes. The farm, the shop, the store, the office, the school and the pulpit are left lonely; while the sons of liberty hurry to the scene of strife.

The vision unrolls. Through city streets the bleeding patriots march to answer Father Abraham's call. They are scattered along the red line of mortal combat. The bridge at Antietam, grave of a corps, answers back to the cry of a mourning nation with its illustrious roll of fallen sons. Endless roads, with winter's sleet or summer's blazes; reeking battlefields and the sounding bugle's call to the charge tell the story of the strife and its mighty price; armless heroes, shot torn veterans of earth's mightiest war; graves scattered in the swamps of the Chickahominy, on the forbidding slopes of Mission Ridge, in the fields of Gettysburg, under the solid,

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

frowning ramparts of Fredericksburg, before embattled Petersburg or along the pathway of Sherman's march to the sea.

The vision still unrolls. Beneath the lifting smoke the serried hosts march up. Gleaming bayonets, tipped with grim death, glare hungry at our shot torn lives. The scream of the mangle ball, the crash of the bursting shell, the fierce yell of the awful foe. A moan. Ah! Comrades turn pale, clasp their breasts, strive to utter one loved name, sink slowly to the ground, and the tide of war rolls on over their quivering forms. Then silence when the morning's roll call rallies the broken ranks.

The vision still unrolls. Patient faces press the pane for sight of postman; strained eyes scan the paper dreading to see that dear name under bar of solemn black. Ah! There it is. An hour's silent agony; then with heaven's devoted light resplendent on their deep-lined faces they step out under the shadows of advancing night. Lift their eyes to the starry banner waving softly above the village square, breathe a prayer of devotion to its precious folds and send another loved one to take the fallen's place.

The vision still unrolls. Now the sound of the strife is hushed into sweet anthems of peace. Soldiers come marching home; some with empty sleeves; some on crutch; some with wasted frame; some with faltering step. But on their brows a laurel such as no Caesar ever wore, nor kingly ruler ever found on battlefield of old.

This is what we here commemorate. This is what assembled throngs, lovely flowers, tear decked faces, swelling souls and solemn proud demeanor, signify among the happy millions of our land today.

It is fitting that we should here pass in review of those illustrious patriots whose fame we celebrate today. The early era in our nation's life preserved for us a roll sublime.

The Mayflower with its noble band, and the cavaliers of the south, reaching across the grave of dead differences, sealed the spirit of Marston Moor in a wedding of Puritan and Royalist, whose offspring became a nation with such names as Adams, Hancock, Jefferson, Hamilton, Washington and the nameless humble heroes who fought their country's foe from the roadways of Lexington to the triumph of Yorktown. Jackson, Wayne, Taylor, Harrison and Scott, glorious successors to that first great band who cleared our new world for freedom's homes.

But closer in this hour are the men who led our nation's defenders from the rustic quiet of peace through awful war to Appomattox. How proud the list! Thomas, the rock of Chickamauga, whose mighty soul steadied, inspired and directed his men so that the disastrous tides of defeat were rolled back, giving place to honorable triumph. Lee, the noblest of the noble, who at the famous pass with his Spartans, than Thomas at his post at Chickamauga. Hooker, the magnificent, sweeping down his weary lines, riding like a centaur, and ablaze with fearless fire of combat, might have led the charge of the light brigade at Balaklava; the old guard for Napoleon, or the tenth legion for Caesar. Reynolds, modest but mighty, who could have taken the army at any time and led it as did Meade or Grant to Gettysburg and Appomattox. Meade, the scholar and fighter, who whipped the mighty Lee back of northern soil in the most awful battle recorded on history's page of honor. Sheridan, the fire gale of the war; Logan, the black eagle of the northwest; and Howard, the Hawk, lock of the Union army, who could pray as hard as he could fight, and

Would Not Insure Him.

Insurance Companies would not insure the Rev. J. W. Yeisley because he had Kidney Trouble.

Mr. Yeisley was much discouraged till a friend recommended Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and it cured him.

Mr. Yeisley writes: "My kidneys and liver were in bad condition and I was anxious for relief. I had tried many remedies without success. I bought a bottle of 'Favorite Remedy,' which effectively proved its merit. The best proof that it has completely cured me is my recent acceptance by four different life insurance companies."

The Rev. Mr. Yeisley is the pastor of the First Reformed Church of St. Paris, Ohio, and is as well the editor of the St. Paris Dispatch.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, as well as the weaknesses peculiar to women. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night and puts an end to that scalding pain when passing urine.

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y.

EAST END

EAST END FOLKS TO MAKE A TRIP

Leave Tomorrow On Steamer Kanawha, and will visit West Virginia's Capital.

Quite a number of well-known East End people will start tomorrow on a rather unique outing, which has been planned for the past two months. A part of the excursionists commenced the trip last night, when they joined the Steamer Kanawha, en route to Pittsburgh. They will have nearly two days to spend in the Smoky City, and during their stay will make the boat headquarters, eating and sleeping there.

On the down trip tomorrow they will be joined by a party of a dozen or more for a trip on the boat to Charleston, the capital of West Virginia. They will spend a couple of days there or in side trips to some of the historic spots near. Those who left on the Kanawha last evening were: Mr. and Mrs. John S. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Dixon.

SEVERAL WERE DRUNK

Where Liquor Was Obtained is a Mystery, as Saleons Are Thought to Have Been Closed.

More disturbance was noted in the East End yesterday than for several weeks and Officer Fisher found it necessary to send to refractory citizens down to the city hall, lodging a charge of drunkenness against them. Several cases of intoxication are reported and the question of where the liquor was obtained has been raised. It is generally believed that all the East End saloons maintain a strict observance of the Sunday closing laws and it is thought that the inevitable speak-easy has been brought into existence. A close watch is being maintained by the East End police and the violators of the law will fall into their hands.

Thrown from a Buggy.

James White, bar tender at Maxwell's saloon, was thrown from a buggy yesterday evening, at Mulberry street and Fire alley, but escaped with a few slight bruises and scratches. The animal took fright at an approaching car and the buggy came in contact with a pole, smashing one of the wheels. There were several small children in the vehicle, but they were not hurt.

Inspected a College.

Rev. G. W. Orcutt, of the Erie street Methodist Church, who returned last Thursday from Chicago, visited the Garrett Biblical Institute, at Evanston, 12 miles north of the Windy City. Rev. Mr. Orcutt is a member of the conference visiting committee for this institution and the other members were with him on the tour of inspection. The report will be made to the next conference meeting.

East End Affairs.

Mrs. Wright and son spent yesterday with relatives at Hookstown. S. S. Laffer, of Dixonville, is confined to his home with a threatened attack of fever.

The East End potteries were practically deserted today, most of the operatives attending the N. B. of O. P. picnic.

A boy baby was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Baxter at their home, near the street railway power plant. Mr. Baxter is the popular.

of any soldier that looks out upon us from history's page:

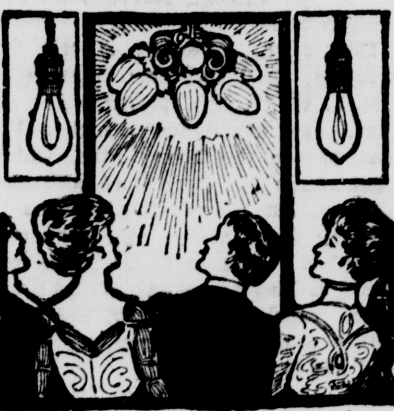

Lincoln, noblest of them all; Father Abraham to the suffering soldier on the field; Old Abe to the anxious ones at home; Honest Abe to the country at large; Mr. Lincoln to the astonished, awe-struck statesmen of the world. He had Plato's mind, Washington's selfishness, Richieu's astuteness, the tenderness of a mother and the lofty spiritual soul of Elijah, and stands above the mighty of all ages—God's demonstration to human fears; God's concession to liberty's spirit.

And greater than all, the private soldier, the real hero of the war, stands out before us colossal in the majesty of his humble valor. Those great leaders recounted here, saw fame, honor, rich prizes of immortality glittering before them. The private was inspired by hope of no such reward. They rode; he must march through mud and dust, in storm or heat. They were fed, sheltered, served; he must lie down at night with no bed but the cold, wet soil beneath him; no canopy but the overcast skies above, or stand through the long, dreary night on picket line, guarding the army's safety and rest. He must receive unsheltered the fire of the foe. He must plunge into the vortex of hurrying death, and with his comrades mowed down as grass before the scythe. Yet with no prize but an honorable discharge, with no reward but that of a manly breast and unchallenged flag, he must return to his home to live in a broken way that remnant of the life that was left to him.

What could have been done by Lincoln, the sublime; Grant, the resolute, or Sherman, the splendid, without these unsung heroes in the ranks? Pay them with our country's gold? Grant them precedence in our civil life? Cast our garlands upon their graves? Uncover yearly in the presence of that thin line that surrounds yonder memorial hall when the nation's Sabbath returns again? What are all these in return for their transcendent sacrifice for the nation?

Is it not thy distinction, noble patriot, who kept a private's place with in the ranks, that not all our praise, not all our gold, can discharge the debt we owe, nor give thee honor as thy due? Enlarge your thought and circle proudly through that luminous area of life and hope lit up by lessons from war.

Has it not been said that no nation can safely depend upon its citizens' volunteer service for its defense?

Disdainfully rulers have pointed out the nations of all ages, not one of which has ever succeeded in a great war by dependence upon the citizen soldier. The fighter must be segregated with his kind, trained long in the business of war till he develops its spirit as well as its art.

Rome had its military class, Macedonia had its soldiers, Carthage had hers, with Hannibal at their head. Each had its special standing army. Not so America. Our sons were wrestled with the forest, knew no implement but that of honest industry; and when its hour of danger came, went forth a call for help to peace-loving citizens. From the home to the muster field was but a day. Straight from the commissariat to the battle field they marched and these citizen soldiers wrote into history the world's greatest, most terrible, as well as noblest war. At Fredericksburg they stormed a solid granite wall. At Gettysburg they repelled as fierce and deadly a charge as any veteran brigade in the annals of man. What he lacked in training the volunteer soldier made up in fierce devotion and intelligent action. This country entered that war the derision of the world, because of our soldiers' conduct upon the battlefield it emerged the proud and unchallenged superior of any nation under heaven.

Our faith teaching brotherly kindness, our respect and devotion to women, our regard for the unfortunate, our quick and earnest devotion to the founder of our faith, might enervate, unman our citizens till they would shrink from frowning cannon and the war cry of a foe. The south fondly fancied that because we made such a fuss about the sufferings of a slave we were too effeminate to fight. The world sneered at our brave eloquence and defiant rally when Sumter's flag went down at the command of Davis and the south. But mortal man never was braver; no army ever exhibited more reckless courage in the deadliest strife; on sea with the immortal Farragut lashed to his throats in the teeth of a gale of shot, or on land at Mission Ridge, with reckless bravery climbing in the face of sheeted death.

After second Bull Run a wounded captain was ordered to report at once with his company at his colonel's tent for important duty. When he came, followed by one lone private, whose face streamed with blood, "Where are your men, sir," cried the frate colonel. Gulping down a great sorrow the captain replied, as he lined up with his single follower, "We are all here, sir; all that is left of us."

In fact it is the genius of democracy that it should be self-supporting. What is liberty? It is rights of self-government. But it is also self-government so exercised as to promote the welfare of others. Slavery was the smallpox of democracy. It was the enemy of equality socially. It was the enemy of equality industrially. It was the enemy of equality politically. Two civilizations were wrestling upon this continent. The house was divided against itself. War was inevitable. "Union" was the shibboleth. The real issue was industrial, social and political equality. The north did not begin the war. The south assumed that burden and their attack was rebellion, not revolution.

Slavery was a violation of the spirit of our government. The north did not insist upon its destruction. The north insisted upon its extension and this determination led to their attack upon the union. They had no cause for revolution, it was rebellion, and rebellion meant anarchy. If thirteen states might rebel against the authority of the union with the purpose of justifying an unlawful institution, then any state might do the same. If Carolina, then Ohio. If Ohio, then Columbiana county. If this county, then East Liverpool. If this city, then any single ward. If a ward, then a precinct. If a precinct, then an individual. At any time any man who was not suited by the laws his community had lawfully enacted might secede from the government. Become a law unto himself and demand his right to refuse obedience to government.

Secession meant anarchy. Secession meant the right of any man to deny those regulations which by lawful methods had been determined as beneficial to the community. The logic of Jefferson Davis was the anarchist who shot down McKinley. The logic of the rebellion is the frenzied mob that demolishes jails and slaughters the accused without process of law.

The heroes of the civil war are the nation's eternal bulwark against the red assassin of anarchy. Lawlessness that pilfers prosperity, assails virtue, oppresses the weak and destroys life was arrayed with secession against the union and went down condemned at Appomattox, buried in the same grave that yawned to receive slavery.

Lawlessness that disregards pledges and oaths made to the people by those set in seats of authority over us was hurled all lonesome as it was dangerous into that same hospitable grave. Henceforth political ambition must be tempered by honesty, ability and courage, or in the name of Appomattox its sentence shall be executed.

Business that is harmful to character, health and happiness, that disqualifies men for citizenship, that robs them of domestic virtues, that breathes the debasing breath of hell into the fair soul of manhood, went down condemned into that same grave at Appomattox, and since, despite its intransigence in human greed, its lofty bulwark of gold, it remains our privilege and holy task to see that the sentence of its appeal to the arbitrament of war be executed.

Soldiers, I am awed by the apparent diffusion of those principles which by your heroism were established on this continent. Already the world's greatest political movements are towards democracy; and when in the coming years, grateful peoples freed from the ancient yoke of despotism, shall tune their anthems in honor of that age, that people by whom their freedom came, they shall turn their happy eyes toward this star that blazed lonely in the western sky—to the men who here the Stars and Stripes in the red days of our civil war. The coming freedom of the race will follow as your great gift to man.

Special music had been arranged and the exercises were interesting and impressive. In spite of the fact that the people generally indulged in worldly pleasures throughout the entire day, the regular Memorial day ceremonies were gone through with in a manner which was most satisfactory to the interested orders.

There are 200 young men from Porto Rico being educated in this country, 25 of them at public expense. They were selected after a competitive examination, and each is allowed $100 a year for his personal expenses by the legislature of Porto Rico. Most of them have free scholarships in the institutions they attend. Several other young Porto Ricans have been sent here for an education by benevolent societies. Only a few are in colleges and universities. Now a number of American colleges have agreed to educate, tuition free, a number of Filipinos. This is one effect of expansion, that cannot fail of being far-reaching in its benefits.

President Roosevelt says the knowledge gained of his country and its people in his tour across the continent has made him a better American. Incidentally it may be remarked that he was a pretty good American before he started. But what he says is well worth considering by those Americans who, as soon as they have leisure and means to travel, rush off to Europe ignorant of most of the greatness and wonders of our own land.

The great mass meeting held in New York to protest against the massacre of the Jews at Kischineff gave most effective expression to a feeling which Americans from Atlantic to Pacific equally share. The resolutions that the meeting adopted are in effect the resolutions of the American people, and Russia will make no mistake if she hears them as such. The whole world has a right to protest, and doubtless would, but for fear of Russia.

Wellsville wants a street car line to Lisbon. So do the rest of us, and we will get it if we possess our souls in patience. Instead of starting out to build one of her own, Wellsville might more profitably tackle the smaller but still difficult task of securing a decent wagon road from that city to East Liverpool.

The elements have struck a great blow at Kansas. Fortunately her people are sturdy and strong and will rally, even if it does appear that they are getting more than their share of calamities.

Had Lowell lived to experience the present sort of summer weather, he would doubtless have revised his famous line, making it read: "What so raw as a day in June?"

East Liverpool is patriotic and proud of her military record. Her Memorial day celebration was of an impressive order, as is usually the case.

Strikes in progress in New York city are costing $660,000 a day in wages. War is expensive. Arbitration comes cheaper.

Ex-Secretary John D. Long is glad he isn't rich. There is a lot of people who could rejoice with him if they would.

Philippine Fanatic Captured.
Manila, June 1.—Ruperto Rios, the fanatical Filipino leader in the province of Taybas, who was captured about a month ago, has been convicted of murder and sentenced to death. Twenty-seven of his followers also were convicted and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment. A detachment of scouts has defeated and scattered the Camarut island insurgents, killing 18 of them. This, it is believed, will end the opposition to the government in that place.

THE FLOOD AT KANSAS CITY

Water Four Feet Above High Water Marks of 1881—Enormous Destruction of Property.

Kansas City, Mo., June 1.—With the waters of the Kaw and Missouri rivers nearly four feet above the disastrous level of 1881 and their swollen tide spread over 12 square miles of the city and its suburbs, Kansas City is in the worst flood of its history.

In the valley of the Kaw or Kansas river, between this city and Kansas City, Kan., a report has it that a number of lives have been lost. One report says 14 and another 50, but in the midst of demoralization of traffic and the ordinary means of communication it is impossible to verify these reports. Some believe that no lives have been lost.

The financial loss has been increasing and bids fair to continue. The heaviest is at Armourdale, where the losses to the packing industry and others is placed at $2,500,000. Argentine, another suburb, has suffered losses estimated at $500,000. Other losses will increase the total very materially. Armourdale, with a population of 16,000, is deserted, and its site marked only by the tops of buildings and a number of fires. Seven fires, believed to be chiefly box cars burning, could be seen from the bluffs. There is some danger that the flames will spread to the partially submerged buildings, adding greatly to the already heavy loss. The fire started from the flowing of the water into a lime house. Refugees from Armourdale for the most part are huddled together in the immense auditorium of the convention hall, although several hundred found refuge with friends in more fortunate parts of the city. Two-thirds of Argentine is under water. More than 4,500 people in this suburb found safety in the higher part of the town.

All bridges over the Kaw river are down and the only communication with Armourdale is by boat. Kansas City is without a water supply, the flood having disabled the pumping station and the utmost care is being taken that no fires shall break out. Only one street car line in the city is running, owing to the disabling of the power plants by the flood.

The railroad yards are blockaded. Not a train has gone out of the city except to the east, and it is said that there is little prospect of an improvement in the situation for several days.

Twelve bodies were counted as they floated past. In nearly every instance they were lying across pieces of wreckage. On the roof of a cabin that came swirling down could be seen the body of a woman and her child.

Quiet Day at Jackson.

Jackson, Ky., June 1.—Sunday was a quiet day in Jackson. Save for the inspection in the morning, an unusually large number of curious visitors from the country and a search of the jail, the hours passed monotonously for the troops. Saturday night was without special incident. Fearing that a weapon or saw might be passed to Jett or Tom White by some visitor, Colonel Williams took the precaution to have every cell in the jail examined, but nothing was found. Nothing had occurred to arouse Colonel Williams' suspicions, but it was remembered that when Jett was in jail here last winter, under a peace bond a crowbar and a hatchet were taken to him and he found no difficulty in liberating himself.

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken, many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. WELLSVILLE

LOVING TRIBUTE PAID TO DEAD VETERANS

Impressive Memorial Services in Honor of Wellsville's Soldier Dead.

The citizens of Wellsville on Saturday paid their tribute to those who went to the front and fought for the nation in the civil war. Most of the business places were closed and a large number of the buildings were prettily decorated.

The procession formed at the public square at 7:30 a. m. and at 8 moved down Main street. The order was as follows:

Chief Marshal T. A. Lloyd and Aids.
General Reilly Camp, S. of V.
Cope Post, G. A. R.
Knights of Pythias.
Haines' Band, East Liverpool.
Delegation from Trades and Labor Council and Other Labor Organizations.
Carriages.

The procession marched to Ninth street, where it halted and the school children formed in line. The march then continued out Tenth street to Spring Hill cemetery.

The program at the cemetery opened with prayer by Rev. W. C. Prewitt, followed by song, "America," by chorus. The next was the decoration of graves. Old soldiers with their arms filled with beautiful flowers performed this service.

After the decoration of the graves, the bugle sounded and Dr. B. R. Parke read President Lincoln's address at Gettysburg, followed by the benediction by Rev. C. E. Clark. The procession again formed and marched back to town.

The committee who had charge of the arrangements for the celebration was: S. S. Cope, chairman; T. A. Lloyd, Frank Kelly, Mrs. T. L. Apple, Wilson Smith, A. B. Stubbins, Mrs. K. F. Davidson and W. C. Fraser. This committee deserves great credit.

BRAKEMAN KILLED AT YELLOW CREEK

Received Injuries from Striking a Bridge That Soon Caused His Death.

Gus Albright, a C. & P. brakeman, whose home is in Wheeling, sustained injuries Friday while at work on a local freight that resulted in his death a few hours later. Young Albright was standing erect upon the top of a car and failed to note his rapid approach to the Yellow Creek bridge. The overhead structure work caught the unfortunate man, throwing him violently from the car to the ground.

His loss was early discovered by the crew, who at once went back, picked him up and took him on to Wellsville, where despite medical aid he died. The remains were taken to Wheeling for burial. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Albright, and was about 25 years of age.

Child Badly Scalded.

The one-year-old child of Edward Renoff, Fifth street, was badly scalded Friday evening. The family were at supper and Mrs. Renoff was holding the little child in her lap. The baby caught at the table, struck a cup of coffee and the contents splashed over its face and chest. The burns were very painful.

SOUTH SIDE

TERRIBLY BITTEN BY SAVAGE DOG

JOHN SULLIVAN, AGED 16, CAME NEAR BEING KILLED.

Big Newfoundland Jumped on Him And Gave His Neck a Bad Wound.

Had it not been for the prompt action of John Heath in calling off a vicious dog, John Sullivan, a 16-year-old lad of Lawrenceville, would have been bitten to death on Friday evening. As it was he was badly injured and the bites may result in his death.

Young Sullivan is a resident of Lawrenceville and is employed at the Rock Springs bowling alleys. He went to the home of Joshua Steele, a colored man, also residing in Lawrenceville, last Friday, and as he passed through the front room of the house he was attacked by a dog belonging to Steele. The dog is a large one, being of the Newfoundland breed, and while he was known to be a good watch dog he had never attacked any one before.

When Sullivan approached the dog sprang at him and fixed his teeth in the boy's neck just under the left ear.

The force of the blow caused the lad to fall, and the infuriated beast would have made short work of him had not Heath put in an appearance at this juncture. Heath is a son-in-law of Steele, and had been in fear of the dog for some time. He had seen several conclusive proofs of his treachery and was not surprised at what he saw on this occasion. He cried out at the top of his voice and the dog let go his hold. This gave Sullivan an opportunity to escape and he lost no time in taking advantage of it. The boy's neck was torn and the wound bled profusely.

Dr. Lewis was summoned hurriedly, and after dressing the hurt, sewed several stitches in it. The lad suffered some pain and was weakened from loss of blood. He is still confined to his home, and if he escapes blood poisoning it will be more fortunate than many of his friends think. Later in the day Heath killed the dog.

A GREAT BUSINESS

One at the Park—The New Attractions Much Appreciated.

All of the attractions at Rock Springs park were running full blast on the evening of the school picnic and the large crowd did not disperse until a late hour. On Memorial day the attendance at the park was very large both afternoon and evening, the dancing being especially enjoyed. The opening of the new summer theater and old mill were events which an immense crowd enjoyed, and the attractions were voted the best of the kind ever seen in the city. All pronounce the theater perfect, and predict a prosperous and successful season for the institution.

The Tribe of Ben Hur excursion from Pittsburgh and vicinity on Saturday brought 39 well filled coaches and a big crowd.

TWO WEEKS' PAY

Given to the Employees of the Chester Tin Plate Mill on Friday.

The management of the Chester tin mill paid its employees on Friday afternoon. It was not the regular pay day, but on account of Memorial day falling on Saturday the concern concluded to settle the day before. Notices were posted throughout the factory, stating that envelopes would be distributed between the hours of 8 in the morning and 11:30 at noon. The notices informed the employees that no envelopes would be given out at any other times, and every man was on hand within the specified time. The workmen were given a two weeks' pay and the merchants of Chester are all profiting by the large amount of money put in circulation.

THE PRESIDENT AT CHEYENNE

Listens to a Sermon on "Strenuousness" in the Morning and Visits Ranch in the Afternoon.

Cheyenne, Wyo., June 1.—Although Sunday was supposed to be entirely given over to rest by President Roosevelt, he was on the go most of the day. The chief executive and party attended the First Methodist church in the morning, where special services for the president were held. The Rev. Mr. Forsythe preached a beautiful sermon on "Strenuousness." Immediately at the close of the service carriages were taken to the residence of former Senator Carey, where luncheon was served. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Secretary to the President, Loeb, Assistant Secretary Barnes, Surgeon General Rixey, Captain Seth Bullock, Senator Warren, Governor and Mrs. Chatterton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Carey and Robert Carey were guests at luncheon.

In the afternoon a long procession of carriages, headed by the president and party, started for Senator Warren's ranches, 14 miles south of the city. Here the routine work on one of Wyoming's biggest ranches was shown the party. An elegant supper was served, after which the start for Cheyenne was made. When the president reached his hotel he was in jubilant spirits and remarked that he was looking forward with great pleasure to the frontier exhibition.

Previous to starting for the Warren ranches the Eagles lodge of this city presented President Roosevelt with a life membership in the order.

Secretary Moody, who has been with the presidential party since it entered California, left for Washington.

PITTSBURG RACE RIOT

Bloody Battle Between White Baseball Players and Negro Crap Shooters.

ATTEMPT TO LYNCH PRISONER

Two Thousand Men and Boys Participate in the Fray—Peacemaker Receives a Fatal Wound—Two Boys Shot.

Pittsburg, June 1.—Savage race riots of the south were outtrivaled in a bloody battle at High Bridge, on the Castle Shannon railroad. One negro was killed, two others were desperately wounded, two white boys were shot and severely hurt, a number of other persons were less seriously injured and only the merciful hand of apparent death spared Allegheny county from the horror of a lynching. Two thousand men and boys took part in the conflict and nearly 100 shots were exchanged.

For nearly half an hour an infuriated mob surrounded a building where two negro desperadoes held their assailants at bay until one was killed and his companion was driven to surrender himself to the crowd's vengeance by a fire which had been kindled around the frail structure. The dead:

Charles Kelle, negro, of Pasture street, shot and killed. He was 30 years old and a well-known gambler in Pittsburg.

The wounded: William W. Davis, negro, aged 28, shot in back, beaten about head and body with stones and baseball bats; neck badly cut, where he was dragged by rope; will recover; is at South Side hospital.

Sandy Garrett, negro, aged 24, of hill on South Eighth street; bullet two inches above heart, penetrated the lung; will die; is at South Side hospital.

Joseph Tominsky, a Pole, aged 18, Nelson Foster, negro, Herman Altenhof, aged 15 years, Knoxville; cut on forehead by flying stones.

Leo Karns, aged 14, Duquesne Heights.

The fight was the outgrowth of a reign of lawlessness which was being reaped at High Bridge. Negro gamblers from the city had followed the Sunday crowds which congregated there in the summer and attend the ball games played on a part of the grounds. A month ago the owners of the property notified the ball players that no more games could be played if the rough element was not kept away, and it was carrying out this order in the face of five armed negro gamblers that the trouble started.

WINDSORS LOST TWO GAMES

New Blood on the Local Y. M. C. A. Team Made Its Influence Felt.

GILT EDGED SUPPORT

Given to Pitcher Winters in Friday's Game—The Morning Game on Saturday the Only One Won by the Visitors.

The Y. M. C. A. team won two of three games played here Friday and Saturday, with the Windsors of Allegheny. Winters pitched the game Friday, and was invincible, the visitors securing but five hits. As has been the case in the most of the games he has pitched this season, Winters' batting was a big factor. Principal interest centered in the new men, Miller, the left handed twirler, Keifer, the catcher and second baseman, and Lawrence, a right handed slab artist.

Contrary to the previous experience with new material, the entire bunch made good and Manager Reark should make every effort to keep them on the team. Keifer is from Delphos and has been playing on the fast amateur team representing that city. He played last year in the Michigan league. Miller has been playing this season in Cleveland. He has a puzzling delivery, his preliminary motions in delivering the ball being very deceptive. Lawrence is from the University of Maine and although his opening game was a loser, it was not the fault of his pitching.

The locals won the first game by superior stick work and the excellent slab work of Winters. His support was gilt edged, Gibson being the bright, particular star, helping out also with his bat. Harker made good in left field and seems to have found his batting eye. Brown, who was out of his regular position played a nice game at third, his throwing to first on slow grounders being of the sensational order. Following is the detailed score of Friday's game:

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT

Good, healthy flesh can only be gained by the use of proper food, together with natural action of the digestive organs. Nine people out of ten, in order to weigh as much as they desire, and be perfectly healthy, should use Mi-na, the great flesh-forming food and digestive regulator. Weigh yourself before commencing to use these little tablets and see how your weight increases from week to week.

Mi-na does not contain a particle of pepsin, the basis of the ordinary dyspepsia remedy, and which never made a cure of dyspepsia. Mi-na has valuable flesh-forming properties, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs, helps digest the food eaten, and absolutely and permanently cures the worst forms of dyspepsia.

If you are not perfectly satisfied with the results from Mi-na, Will Reed will return your money without any questions. What other medicine is sold on this plan?

SSS THE BEST TONIC

In S. S. S. Nature has provided a tonic suited to every requirement of the system when in a debilitated, run down condition. It contains no strong minerals or drugs, but is a pleasant vegetable preparation. You can find no better remedy for toning up the nerves and bringing refreshing, restful sleep when in a low state of health, or sick and worn out with work or worry.

S. S. S. improves the appetite, aids the digestion and reinforces the system, and its good effects are seen almost from the first dose. It acts promptly in cases of chronic dyspepsia, indigestion and all stomach troubles, and does away with the uncomfortable fullness, nausea, shortness of breath, drowsiness and dizziness that so often come after eating.

S. S. S. is not only the best tonic but possesses alterative or purifying properties, and if there is any taint, humor or poison in the blood it searches it out, and removes it. Many times a low state of health is due to a bad condition of the blood and can only be remedied by a blood purifier and tonic combined, or such a remedy as S. S. S.

If you suffer from debility, insomnia, nervousness, loss of appetite, bad digestion, or any of the symptoms of a disordered blood, nothing will so soon put your blood in good condition, invigorate and tone up the system as S. S. S.

BEATEN BY P. A. C.

East End Athletics Lost Both Games At Pittsburg on Saturday.

The East Liverpool Athletics lost the attraction at Friendship park, Pittsburg, Saturday, as opponents of P. A. C. The morning game resulted in a shut-out for the visitors, owing to Diebold's fine work on the rubber, but 28 men facing him during the nine innings. P. A. C. had their batting clothes on and had no trouble running up large scores in both games. Savey was on the rubber for six and one-half innings in the second game, but retired in favor of Taylor, who stopped the patters' hitting. Aside from the pitching of Diebold, the fielding of Bridge, Heckathorne and K. Taylor, and the batting of the entire P. A. C. team were the features.

Disappointment came to the 400 fans who sat under the leaden skies to see Saturday morning's game. Lawrence, the stocky Yankee, pitched an elegant game, but his team mates could not find Moor, the opposing twirler. Moor is the Windsor's regular first baseman, and his success in the box was considered the worst sort of a fluke, even by his teammates. It was not until the ninth that the locals could bunch hits enough to score. Gibson's batting and base running was the feature of the game. The prettiest play of the entire day was Mountford's slide to second in the sixth inning. He eluded Stevenson, who had Buckley's throw in plenty of time to nail him. Following is the detailed score:

The Marines, of Canton, defeated the Wellsville boys two games out of three, which were played at Central park Friday and Saturday. The Canton team did not win by superior playing, but by pure luck more than anything else. Both teams played as though they never saw a ball before, thirty-five errors being made in the three games.

On Friday the game was interesting up to the fifth inning, the score standing 6 to 4 in Wellsville's favor. After the fifth the visitors scored six more runs, making 10. The home team scored two more, making 8, and when they came in for the ninth and last inning they needed three to win. Hamilton was equal to the emergency, and by a two-bagger, won the game.

In the Saturday morning game the Canton boys won in the second and seventh innings, scoring four runs in the second and two in the seventh. Patterson pitched a remarkably good game, striking out 12 men, but could not win alone. His support was very poor.

The home team on Saturday afternoon had the game practically won up to the fifth, when Riley got wild. The score for Friday:

TWO VICTORIES

Carroll Club Defeated the Georgetown Boys Twice in Succession.

The Carroll club on Saturday defeated the Georgetown team in two games played at Georgetown. In the morning Dechant pitched a masterly game, having the Georgetown completely at his mercy and striking out nine men. In the afternoon, after knocking, McKeever out in the first inning and Bailey in the sixth, Dechant again went on the rubber and held his opponents down to one hit for the remainder of the game. The batting of Godwin was a feature of the game, he having four hits, including two home runs.

How To Tell A Swindle.

If a man tells you he can make 25 per cent. out of your money for you and don't tell you how, set it down as a swindle. If he offers you something for nothing, set it down as a swindle. If he tells you he can cure you of disease, and don't tell you how, set it down as a swindle. If you will exercise your own judgment, your own reason—just use a little common sense at all times, it is the safest guide. We tell you Life Plant cures Rheumatism, Eczema, Catarrh, Asthma, Scrofula and all blood diseases, and we tell you why. It does it because it purifies the blood, drives out the impurities and thus removes the cause of disease. There is no other way. Now that's common sense. The blood is the life. Keep the blood pure, full of life, and the whole system will be renewed with new energy. Read this. It tells what Life Plant will do. It's from your neighbor:

Mr. J. C. Lukens, of Tippecanoe, Ohio, says: "I have been greatly relieved of Nervousness, stomach and kidney trouble by the use of Life Plant. As a family medicine to keep the blood in order and tone up the system and prevent sickness, I think it stands at the head of the list."

Tippecanoe, March 1st, 1903.

Life Plant Renews Life. An excellent tonic for the aged. It keeps the blood young, and insures a healthy and ripe old age.

POSTOFFICE SCANDAL

Charles Emory Smith's Letter
Practically Closes the
Tulloch Incident.

INVESTIGATED IRREGULARITIES

Evidence Adduced Believed to Be Justification of Transactions Complain of—Other Documents to Be Made Public Later.

Washington, June 1.—Postmaster General Payne made public the reply of former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith to the charges of former Cashier S. W. Tulloch, of the Washington city postoffice, regarding the postal administration. Mr. Smith says that he investigated the allegations of irregularities when they were made and that the evidence adduced in most cases was believed to be a justification of the transactions complained of, adding that the criticisms betrayed a lack of knowledge of conditions incident to the Spanish war and the measures necessary to meet the requirements. Mr. Payne said that Mr. Smith's letter practically closes the Tulloch incident, although other documents on the subject will be made public later. These include the replies of former First Assistant Postmaster General Heath and of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow, the report on the former investigation of the Tulloch charges, to which Mr. Smith refers, and the reports of the postoffice inspectors and civil service representatives who investigated the Washington postoffice. Owing to their great volume all the documents except Mr. Heath's reply, will be briefed, although the documents themselves will be open to public inspection, if wanted. The first answer of Mr. Smith to the Tulloch charges will not be made public. Mr. Payne explained that Mr. Smith had forgotten about Mr. Tulloch's charges and the investigation he ordered, and that until the papers were accidentally found by Mr. Francis W. Whitney, secretary to Mr. Payne, it was not known that the charges had been investigated at the time. These papers showed that Mr. Smith had divided the charges into groups, noting directions for investigations to each group and subsequently recording against each group the results of the investigation. Mr. Payne said that Mr. Smith in his prior letter had entirely forgotten the Tulloch charges and did not recall the name or the fact that he had investigated the charges.

Posting of Names.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow has recommended to Postmaster General Payne that the order directing the posting of names of residents on rural free delivery routes in the postoffices on those routes be rescinded. No action has yet been taken on the recommendation. First Assistant Postmaster General Wynne and Fourth Assistant Bristow disagree on the question. The order was issued by Mr. Wynne as acting postmaster general and was approved by Mr. Payne when he returned from the West Indies. Mr. Payne said that he believes that the publicity attained through the order would add $1,000,000 a year to the postal revenues and in this way would help to make the service self-sustaining, and that he believed the publicity was in line with the doctrine of "the greatest good to the greatest number."

Mr. Payne said that the objections to the publicity given the names of the patrons came from the country newspapers, which are made more subject to competition from large papers; from the country store, which loses by the invasion of the aggressive advertising of the large mercantile houses in the cities and the wholesale stores of the cities, from which the country storekeepers get their stock—the mail order houses invading their field. Mr. Payne said that he would welcome an intelligent public discussion of the question.

EXCEPTIONAL SECURITY AFFORDED.

Its market value is $4,470,000
The actual cash invested in the Company's plant is $4,954,501 65

Making a total property value securing the bonds, approximately $30,557,501 65
Against which there is a total bonded indebtedness, outstanding, including this and all subsidiary issues, of only $3,607,000 00

Under a special provision of the agreement entered into at the time of the purchase of the Wheeling Natural Gas Company by The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, when all of the stock of the former company has been transferred to the latter, the floating indebtedness of the Wheeling Natural Gas Company is limited to $200,000 at any one time, and no other bonds can be secured upon its assets until this issue is completely retired.

The Wheeling Natural Gas Company was incorporated under the laws of West Virginia March 26, 1888, and, at the time of its purchase by The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, was managed by the following well-known gentlemen: Officers: William Flinn, President; A. A LARGE BUNCH

OF DISORDERLIES

MANY PERSONS PAID FINES IN THE POLICE COURT.

Over Indulgence in the Flowing Bowl Got Most of Them Into Trouble.

Evidently Saturday's holiday induced a number of people to indulge in the flowing bowl. A bunch of drunks and others were caught in the police net Saturday and yesterday.

A man named Phillips, ejected from a street car by the conductor for disorderly conduct, picked up a brick and threw it at the car. Unfortunately for him and a companion he lingered long enough at the scene for Chief Wyman to nab him. He paid $8 and his companion $5.

Officer McDermott arrested Dora Smith, against whom a complaint was lodged by her husband. Mrs. Smith was in Shantytown when located and would have escaped arrest had she not become disorderly. On the way to central station Mrs. Smith took French leave of the officer, who had an exciting chase before he recaptured her.

Officer Woods arrested two young men, strangers in the city, and they paid their fines for drunkenness and were discharged.

Jim Penny and Charles Carragher, two old timers, got into the toils. The latter was given permission to make himself scarce.

James Flinn was arrested by Officer McDermott and charged with disorderly conduct. He paid a fine and was released.

James Jones was sent down from the East End by Officer Fisher. Jones had a jag and paid the usual fee.

Another capture by Fisher was William Dawson, who paid $6.00 for his jag.

John Hoskinson, arrested Saturday night, is thought by many to be guilty of smashing a $70 plate glass window in John Hoffman's saloon. The charge could not be proved and he was fined for being drunk and disorderly.

Destructive Fire at Racine.

Racine, Wis., June 1.—Fire swept the southern manufacturing district, doing about $300,000 damage. The losses in part are: Racine boat manufacturing factory, lumber, $115,000; J. I. Case, threshing machine shops, $150,000; Standard Oil company tanks and sheds, $25,000; half a dozen residences and small factories, $25,000. The fire started in the boiler room of the Racine Boat Manufacturing company and before the firemen arrived a tank of gasoline exploded. A tower of flame 300 feet high shot up into the air, but as it was Sunday no one was about the factory and no one was injured.

Ravages by Earthquake.

London, June 1.—The British consular at Erzeroum reports that an official estimate places the number of persons killed in the earthquake in the Van district of Asiatic Turkey at 800, while the loss of cattle was incalculable, as, owing to the lateness of the spring, a large majority of the animals were indoors. Nearly a score of villages were completely destroyed and many more were partially demolished. The center of disturbance was in the neighborhood of Mount Cilan.

The authorized issue is $2,500,000, of which $500,000 is reserved for the betterments of the plants of the Wheeling Natural Gas Company. They are dated February 2, 1903, and mature $200,000 each year until 1916. They bear interest at 6 per cent. per annum, and, at the price at which they are offered, will net the investor almost Five and Three-quarters per cent. The bonds are secured by the deposit of the capital stock of the Wheeling Natural Gas Company, which, at its market value at the time it was purchased by The Manufacturers' Light & Heat Company, was worth nearly $4,500,000. As the bonds are guaranteed by the Manufacturers' Light & Heat Company, they are additionally secured by the margin value of its stock, which amounts to in the neighborhood of $18,500,000. The advertisement shows that the actual cash invested in the Wheeling Natural Gas Company properties is, approximately, $5,000,000; while the actual cash invested in The Manufacturers' Light & Heat Company properties amounts to $24,544,000. The latter company has cash on hand and cash assets of over $1,258,000; so that it makes a total property value securing the bonds offered for sale of more than $30,500,000, or almost ten for one. Both companies have been exceedingly prosperous and the indications are that they will be more so. At the time of its absorption, the Wheeling Natural Gas Company was paying 10 per cent. dividends on its capital stock and The Manufacturers' Light & Heat Company was paying 12 per cent. There are other bonds issued upon the Wheeling Natural Gas Company's assets and none can be issued until these are all retired.

Considering the magnitude of the property values and that of the market value of the stock, and the very small amount of bonded indebtedness, it would seem that the opportunity to invest in these bonds at the prices quoted is certainly, as the advertisement says, exceptional. All inquiries for information or the purchase of these bonds should be made of Mr. Alexander C. Thompson, Manager of the Bond Department of the Colonial Trust Company.

THE KANSAS FLOOD

There Is Ground For Hope
That the Worst Danger Has Passed.

THE WATERS ARE SUBSIDING

Two Hundred People Drowned—Eight Thousand Homeless—Four Million Dollars Loss of Property—Fire Adds to the Horror.

Topeka, Kan., June 1.—There is ground for hope that the worst has passed. So treacherous has the Kansas river proven itself in the rising of the water, so slowly receding as to be imperceptible, the five-mile-wide stream is settling back into its right channel. City Engineer McCabe issued a bulletin giving out the cheering intelligence that the waters had subsided to the extent of exactly 7½ inches. It may be some hours before another drop may be noticed. With 175 or 200 lives lost; millions of dollars of property destroyed; with hundreds of pistol shots as signals of distress, blended with the agonizing cries of unwilling inhabitants of trees and roofs of houses, and the waters creeping upward and then slowly subsiding and alternately changing hope to despair, the capital city has passed the most memorable Sabbath day of its existence. Through all this discomforting condition of affairs was added the presence of a cold, dismal rain.

The arduous work of the heroic rescuers was not abated in the least by the conditions which confronted them. For long, in the early hours, knee deep in water and sometimes in water up to their necks, they worked with night and main. Three hundred or more persons were rescued who otherwise might have been swept away in the current.

Havoc Wrought by Flood.

Briefly stated the present condition of the flood is this:

One hundred and seventy to 200 people drowned.

Eight thousand people without homes.

Four million dollars loss of property.

Identified dead, 5.

Floating bodies seen, 20.

People missing, 200.

Houses burned, result of fire in lumber from slacking lime, probably 200.

Big business blocks almost ready to crumble, 50.

Rock Island trains containing 150 passengers held here by high water.

City water works plant useless.

The known dead: Karl Rupp, Orville Rupp, two Rupp girls, G. H. Garrett's 5-year-old son.

Twenty unidentified bodies.

Leading men have made a careful examination of the flood and all its conditions, and as a result of their investigation they give 250 as the probable number of lives lost. A more conservative estimate places the number of dead at 175. The higher number is as apt to be correct as the lower. The number of dead is merely a matter of guess. Twenty members of rescuing parties tell of how they saw people drop from houses to be swept away by the flood and others tell of men who, terrified at the approach of fire, dropped into the water, where they sank and did not reappear.

This estimated number of dead does not include the large number classed as missing, who cannot otherwise be accounted for. Neither does it include the number who are supposed to have lost their lives in the fire in the later class there is absolutely no means of arriving at even an approximate number of victims. The water is so high and the current so strong that all that can be done now is to rescue those in the buildings surrounded by water. It will be at least three days before the correct number of dead will be known. Work of rescuing the victims of the flood is being pushed with vigor. Better results have characterized the efforts of the organized forces since 4 o'clock in the afternoon than during all the preceding 24 hours. Two little steam launches are now puffing up and down the river picking up survivors. A larger steamboat is expected here by a special train on the Rock Island in 24 hours. If possible to run the train the boat will be brought to a point two miles above the city and launched there.

Contributions Flowing In.

Large contributions have already been received for the benefit of the sufferers. The amount given by Topeka citizens alone will aggregate $100,000. To this is to be added an immense quantity of clothing, provisions and general supplies. Outside towns have generously offered aid, notable among which is Galveston, Texas.

The portion of Topeka not affected by the flood is crowded with refugees and people from the surrounding country who have come to witness the flood conditions.

If the river shall not receive any more flood water west of here, the improvement in the situation here will be marked. If the water shall rise at Manhattan and Wamego a repetition of the worst of the flood scenes and the distress here will be greatly intensified. Either contingency is entirely within the range of possibility.

NOBLE AND GENEROUS THE TRIBUTES PAID

Memorial Day Services In This City of an Unusually Impressive Character.

DR. PRATT ON THE GENIUS OF DEMOCRACY

Memorial day was more generally observed in this city Saturday than upon any previous occasion in the history of our municipality. While hundreds of citizens took the day from their office or workshop, there were few who kept it in the manner that was intended by those who, years ago, made it a season in which all our people should lay aside the usual amusements of the holiday and mourn with the surviving veteran over the heroes gone before.

The morning was devoted to the work of decorating the soldiers' graves in the outlying cemeteries, and long before noon there was not a burying ground in or around the city that had not been decked out with flags and a token of remembrance in the shape of a wreath of green and a bouquet of flowers upon the grave of every soldier buried there. The task was performed by committee from the Grand Army and sub-committees from the Sons of Veterans. The wreaths and flowers, as has been customary for many years, had been prepared by the ladies of the Relief Corps several days before.

The condition of the Wellsville lodge of Sons of Veterans has prevented it from carrying on the work of decorating, and each year a detail from this city has gone to that town on the morning of Memorial day, where they assisted the Grand Army with the ceremonies. This year the representatives from East Liverpool were larger than ever before and the aid given was appreciated by the Wellsville people.

Captain W. F. Dawson had been selected as master of ceremonies in this city, and was early on the ground. Arrangements had been made for the interested orders to assemble at the Grand Army hall on Fifth street at 1 o'clock, and long before that time the members were on the ground, and half an hour later were ready to start for the cemetery. The line was formed on Fifth street, right resting on Market. The procession was headed by the Sons of Veterans' drum corps, the Grand Army having the position of honor at the front. The Sons had 40 men in line, fully uniformed and equipped.

The line proceeded out Fifth street to Broadway; Broadway to Fourth; Fourth to Market; to East Market, where the Grand Army left the procession.

One of the biggest cocking mains of recent years in this section, was pulled off Saturday on Line Island, by alleged sports from this city, Pittsburgh, Allegheny and other Pennsylvania cities. It is the custom of these sports to desecrate Memorial Day as often as it comes around by indulging in a sport that is unmanly, cruel and debased, and the authorities seem powerless to put a stop to it.

Sunday morning that part of the island near the pits was literally strewn with carcasses of vanquished birds. The three pits were kept going from early in the morning until late in the afternoon. Much money changed hands on each of the many fights, and it was stated today that this city and Pittsburgh had the best of it.

It is claimed that the pits were on Pennsylvania ground, so the law breakers were exempt from interference from the West Virginia and Ohio authorities.

ALL IN READINESS FOR CONVENTION

HARMONY WILL RULE THE REPUBLICAN MEETING.

Agreement Reached as to Candidates for Leading Places—Endorsement for Roosevelt.

From a Staff Correspondent.
Columbus, June 1.—All preparations have been made for the big Republican state convention which will be held in this city Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Many delegates and some of the leaders will be here tomorrow, but the great bulk will not arrive until Wednesday. It will be the largest attended convention yet held by the Republicans.

Senators Hanna and Foraker and all the Ohio congressmen will be here and the gathering will be somewhat like a love feast.
As temporary chairman of the convention Senator Hanna will sound the keynote and will probably furnish the slogan for the campaign. Senator Foraker will be the permanent chairman. It is expected that the convention will decide to place the constitutional amendments on the ballot, in which act it is likely the Democratic state convention will concur in part at least. Roosevelt will be endorsed for another term.

NOT SO BAD BUT BAD ENOUGH

EARLY REPORTS OF LOSS OF LIFE EXAGGERATED.

Kansas Floods Subside, Though Situation is Still Bad at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., June 1.—(Special.)—There is no improvement in the flood situation. The river rose five feet during the night. All business is suspended. Probably a dozen lives have been lost to date. The situation is desperate in Kansas City, Kan., which is completely cut off.

Topeka, Kan., June 1.—It is now believed that the total number lost in the flood here will not exceed 20. Only eight buildings were destroyed by fire. The early reports were unavoidably exaggerated. The Kaw river is falling and the worst is past. The homeless are well cared for. The property loss is now estimated at $1,000,000.

ANCHOR POTTERY TIED UP BY STRIKE

Jiggermen at a Trenton Plant Went Out and Kilnmen Struck in Sympathy.

Trenton, N. J., June 1.—(Special.)—Because four jiggermen employed at the Anchor pottery, who were not members of the union, refused to join the latter, twelve union jiggermen at work there, went on a strike Friday morning and the kilnmen, numbering about 26 men, also went out, refusing to handle the ware made by the non-union jiggermen. By this action the entire plant was practically tied up and work would have had to be suspended within a day or two.

This is the first time in the history of the general ware potteries of this city that the jiggermen have appealed to the kilnmen in their trouble with the bosses or the other men, and the willingness with which the latter responded is an indication of the harmony which now exists in the local potteries' union.

PATTERSON ASKS AN INJUNCTION

Carries His Fight Against C. A. Smith's New Street Car Line to Court.

NOTICES HAVE BEEN GIVEN

By the Sheriff of the Beginning of the Suit—The Franchise Ordinance Alleged to Be Invalid—City a Defendant.

Sheriff Chas. P. Leonard came to this city from the county seat Friday evening and served notice upon C. A. Smith, the projector of the new electric railway to the East End, by way of East Fifth street and Pennsylvania avenue, that a petition had been filed there by Monroe Patterson, through his attorneys, for an injunction against the carrying out of the plans of Smith and his associates.

Sheriff Leonard had some difficulty in locating Smith and it was quite late when the notice had been served. The petition as filed by Mr. Patterson sets forth several reasons why the injunction should be granted. The attorneys connected with the case are Judge P. M. Smith, of Wellsville, and Squires, Sanders & Dempsey, of Cleveland. The document first says the city solicitor has been petitioned to make the application, but had failed to do so, forcing Patterson to do so himself in behalf of the city.

The plaintiff states that on account of a portion of the right of way being over land with respect to which the city had no jurisdiction the granting of the franchise was illegal. It is claimed the franchise should be granted by competitive bidding. The law required the council to give the privileges asked to the lowest bidder. This had not been done since the East Liverpool railway was the lowest bidder. The Smith route is to be constructed a part of the way on private right of way that could never be acquired by anyone else, and therefore the franchise could not be competed for fairly. As a matter of fact, the franchise had been advertised to be granted upon a competition basis when, by reason of Smith having control of private right of way, it would be impossible for any one but him to bid, the petition says.

The meeting at which the ordinance was passed was a special one, and the action taken alleged to be illegal, as all the members had not received notice that the meeting would be held. The petition ends by asking a restraining order to prevent C. A. Smith and his associates from executing or entering upon any contract for the construction or operation of the said railroad.

Mayor W. A. Weaver, Col. J. N. Taylor, W. L. Smith and Jacob Shenkel, of the public service board, are made the defendants and on them the sheriff served notice of the suit.

MISSION SOCIETIES

Of Steubenville Presbytery Will Hold Conventions Here This Week.

The Foreign Missionary society meets Thursday and Friday. Mrs. H. W. Parks, of Hopedale, will preside, and the sessions are expected to last until noon Friday.

Among the East Liverpool members who will take part in the meetings is Mrs. G. R. Warner, who will speak on "Why We Give, or Motives for Giving," at the Thursday afternoon session.

Rev. N. M. Crowe, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of this city, will speak Thursday evening.
At Friday's session Mrs. E. D. Moore will have charge of the morning's worship. Elaborate preparations are being made for the entertainment of the many visitors expected.

PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD ESTIMATES

MILLAGE THAT THE DEPARTMENT WILL RECOMMEND.

Ample Funds Provided if Economy Rules—Condition of Streets Discussed.

Estimates were made by the board of public service, at its meeting Friday night, for the millage necessary to operate the departments under its care. Following are the estimates to be reported to council:

Lights, general, .2; fire, 2.8; light, 2.1; police, .5; sanitary, .5.

While it was the prevailing idea with the members of the board in fixing the millage to prune all expenses to the lowest possible point, it is thought that if the proper economy is observed the funds provided will be ample. Auditor Davidson, City Engineer Kelly and City Solicitor Davidson were present and were called upon frequently for information relating to their departments. Engineer Kelly was instructed to furnish the board with a plot of the city, showing the location of all the street lights, which is to be used by the expert employed by the board.

Better fire protection for the West End pottery will be afforded by extending the water main from Seventh street to the plant.

The condition of the streets and alleys was discussed and Street Commissioner Dickey submitted a plan for keeping them free from filth and rubbish.

Council has asked the board to look into the matter of the obstruction and sewer stoppage on Pennsylvania avenue. The attention of the city engineer and street commissioner was directed to the matter.

Before the close of the meeting the members of the board were served by the sheriff with notice of the injunction proceedings against the projectors of the new East End electric railway by Sheriff Leonard.

Another meeting of the board will be held tonight.

THE POTTERS' PICNIC AT ROCK SPRINGS PARK IS A GREAT SUCCESS

Attendance Not As Large As It Has Been, But the Lack Is Made Up In Enthusiasm.

The annual Brotherhood picnic is being held at Rock Springs park this afternoon, and while the crowd is much smaller than has been known on other occasions, the potters and their friends are making up in enthusiasm and a determination to thoroughly enjoy the day, what they lack in numbers. The weather looked threatening this morning, and coupled with the fact that no arrangements could possibly be made for special rates or special trains on the C. & P., the attendance from other pottery towns was small.

There were a few operatives and their friends from Sebring, East Palestine, Toronto and Steubenville present. They took advantage of the fact that work was not brisk at this time to pay a visit to friends in this city, and are at the park this afternoon. It was expected that a large crowd would attend from New Cumberland, as an excursion rate had been obtained on the Panhandle, but very few came this morning. Quite a crowd came in this afternoon.

The large crowd thoroughly enjoyed the day, and the dancing and other amusements will be enjoyed until well into the night.

The general committee was composed of the following well known Brotherhood men: William Elder, chairman; T. J. Duffy, Edward Menge, Shel Moore, John Wood, A. S. Coleman, George Smith, William Adams, Sr. Each of the several departments was in charge of a competent man and able assistants.

The busiest place was the dancing pavilion.

At 4 o'clock the base ball game between the jiggermen and pressers was scheduled to take place.

PAINFUL BURNS WERE RECEIVED

In Blazing House—Family Asleep in a Sebring Dwelling Gets Out with Great Difficulty.

Sebring, June 1.—A brick dwelling house was completely destroyed by fire at midnight, entailing a loss of $2,000. The building was owned by E. H. Sebring and was occupied by I. H. Blackman, his wife and her son, a young man named Carlton Smith, 25 years old, and employed as foreman at one of the china plants. Smith and his mother were seriously burned.

The origin of the fire is unknown. When the occupants, sleeping on the second floor, awoke, the stairway was in flames. Young Smith grasped his mother in his arms and carried her down the blazing stairway in safety, though both were terribly burned in the flames. The patients were at once taken to the Alliance hospital. It is not believed that he can survive. The mother will recover. Mr. Blackman leaped from the rear window and was uninjured. The family recently located here, coming from Bridgeport, Conn.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

TRENTON TRADE TOPICS.

Trenton, N. J., June 1.—(Special.)—Now that all the grievances which were given an airing at the convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Pottery has been set aside with bright prospects for their peaceful solution, the members here in the east have again settled down to business and are considering plans for further increasing the membership of the organization within the coming year.

Encouraged by the work of Vice President Hutchins and the other national officers in adding 1,000 recruits to the forces of the organization, the members feel, that before next May, when the convention will be held, that every branch of the trade in this city will be thoroughly organized. Before long another effort will be made to affiliate the women workers, and in view of the large number in each shop, now capable of doing campaign work, it is likely that a local of the girls employed in the ware room and the other departments will be one of the largest in the Brotherhood. With the other branches of the trade there is still an abundance of work to do. Hardly any local, aside from the sanitary works, can boast of including every man employed in that particular branch, and the future campaign will be laid along these lines.

Interest in the adoption of a uniform price list by the several locals in this city is still paramount. The members are anxiously awaiting word from East Liverpool of the appointment of a conference committee, which will meet with the manufacturers to discuss the practicability of putting the scale into effect here.

Orders of a special nature are sustaining pottery manufacture here at present. Little business is coming through the regular trade channels except for immediate shipment in small quantities. The special trade, though, is heavy. Cereal concerns, public institutions and the like are providing an unusually heavy demand, which promises to keep the local plants quite active until well into the

Would Not Insure Him.

Insurance Companies would not insure the Rev. J. W. Yeisley because he had Kidney Trouble.

Mr. Yeisley was much discouraged till a friend recommended Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and it cured him.

Mr. Yeisley writes: "My kidneys and liver were in bad condition and I was anxious for relief. I had tried many remedies without success. I bought a bottle of 'Favorite Remedy,' which effectively proved its merit. The best proof that it has completely cured me is my recent acceptance by four different life insurance companies."

The Rev. Mr. Yeisley is the pastor of the First Reformed Church of St. Paris, Ohio, and is as well the editor of the St. Paris Dispatch.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, as well as the weaknesses peculiar to women. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night and puts an end to that scalding pain when passing urine.

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y.

summer. There is also an encouraging demand on hotel china, especially that ware which is designed for rough usage of summer trade at seaside and mountain resorts. Lamps are enjoying a seasonable run of business. In a couple of factories the order files testify to better results than were attained a year ago.

It seems improbable that there will be a combined local exhibit of pottery at the St. Louis exposition. Two or three of the concerns, in fact, have already expressed a disinclination to shoulder the heavy expenses incident to the preparation of a respectable display. The Trenton Pottery company will positively be an exhibitor in both sanitary and general ware lines. The sanitary exposition will naturally be of greater magnitude, although it also proposes to prepare some excellent specimens of its artistic capabilities in jardiniere, pedestals, umbrella stands, vases, jugs, tankards and the like.

William H. Tattler, of the Tattler Decorating company, has had enough of single blessedness. Miss Elizabeth Hughes, principal of the Girard avenue school, is the lady of his choice. The ceremony is announced to take place this month, after which Mr. and Mrs. Tattler will take up their residence at Hillcrest, a suburb of Trenton.

WILL HAVE AN EXHIBIT.

John Sant, local representative for several years of the leading clay and color firms, has secured space at the St. Louis exposition for an exhibit and is very enthusiastic over the opportunity thus presented of acquainting the American people with this great natural resource. In talking over the exposition with a News Review reporter, Mr. Sant expressed surprise that the manufacturers were not more enthusiastic over the proposed exhibit. Some firm will secure a decided advantage if the others are not watchful. It is to be hoped that exhibits from the manufacturers of this city will be the same as their product, unsurpassed by any in the country.

SUMMER LOAF.

It is reported that the plants of the East Liverpool Potteries company will be closed down for two weeks beginning Monday, June 8. It is thought by many that the loaf will be of at least a month's duration. The condition of trade is none too good and unless there is an improvement many of the plants can afford to remain idle a month.

AMONG THE WORKERS.

S. Orr, of Salineville, was a visitor here Saturday.

Will Hardy, of Derry, was here over Sunday with old friends.

Joseph Heckathorn, wife and child, of Lisbon, visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Heckathorn has a good situation with the Lisbon plant as dishwasher and reports business very satisfactory with his firm.

The members of the decorating department at Laughlin No. 3 are preparing for a fishing trip, under the leadership of Robert Parker. Mr. Parker will take his camera along and secure some of the pictures for which he is noted.

cession and took cars on the Calcutta extension for Riverview cemetery. The Sons of Veterans marched the entire distance to the cemetery, arriving there in time to take their position in line. To the music of the dead march the procession proceeded to the mound, near the Memorial chapel, where the ceremonies were held. Commander Dawson and Chaplain D. J. Smith had charge and the ritualistic work was impressively spoken.

The assemblage proceeded to the grove after the ceremonies, where a speaking stand had been erected, and where it was proposed to conclude the exercises with a memorial address by Rev. M. B. Pratt, pastor of the First M. E. church. The weather had been threatening all afternoon, and as the stand was in the open, affording no protection to the audience, it was suggested that the speaking should be postponed until the evening. It was so decided and the announcement was made from the platform that the observance of the day would be continued at the M. E. church in the evening, beginning at 8 o'clock.

When the ranks were dismissed after returning to the city it was arranged to meet at the hall again at 7 o'clock in the evening for the purpose of going in a body to Dr. Pratt's church. All the orders turned out early and marked to the church, where a very large audience listened to the following address by Dr. Pratt:

Today every garden in the land is growing flowers for the nation's fallen heroes; the orchestra of the woods chants requiem sublime, the solemn, reverent multitudes gather to give the tear of affection to their memory, to plant a flag upon their resting place, and to send forth eloquent eulogy in their honor. The very greatness of our land, covering a continent, and stretching out in blessing to the ends of the earth, teeming with prosperous, happy millions, with a government respected the world over, lends its mighty pean of praise to the nation's heroes, living and dead.

We are gathered to do honor to their memory and to learn from them those lessons they may so nobly impart to the sons of this great age. These waving banners, these lovely garlands, these waiting throngs, this grateful spirit that rises and swells within our souls today, these best words and noblest thoughts are our memorial to the nation's defenders.

"What mean ye by these memorials?" As I speak a vision unrolls before my mind. A great people reaching back from the ocean into the wilderness of the far west; the loud hum of industry, the cheerful call of the toiler, the happy notes of the children; the busy, prosperous millions dwell under our flag. But the croak of the raven answers our "Union and Liberty with his hoarse 'Nevermore.' The roar of treacherous gun rolls up from the south; our brothers are in arms against the nation. From the Potomac comes the call for volunteers.

The loud drum sounds to arms; the forum resounds with the echo; the pulpit takes up the call; the orchestras of Union and Liberty sound their loud overtures to war. The vision unrolls. Sturdy sons say good-bye and go with the blessing of home upon them. Men clasp wives and children in one large embrace and hasten away to don the blue and take up the music.

Loved ones stand peering through tear-dimmed eyes at departing heroes. The farm, the shop, the store, the office, the school and the pulpit are left lonely; while the sons of liberty hurry to the scene of strife.

The vision unrolls. Through city streets the bleeding patriots march to answer Father Abraham's call. They are scattered along the red line of mortal combat. The bridge at Antietam, grave of a corps, answers back to the cry of a mourning nation with its illustrious roll of fallen sons. Endless roads, with winter's sleet or summer's blaze; reeking battlefields and the sounding bugle's call to the charge tell the story of the strife and its mighty price; armless heroes, shot torn veterans of earth's mightiest war; graves scattered in the swamps of the Chickahominy, on the forbidding slopes of Mission Ridge, in the fields of Gettysburg, under the solid,

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

frowning ramparts of Fredericksburg, before embattled Petersburg or along the pathway of Sherman's march to the sea.

The vision still unrolls. Beneath the lifting smoke the veried hosts march up. Gleaming bayonets, tipped with grim death, glare hungry at our shot torn lives. The scream of the minie ball, the crash of the bursting shell, the fierce yell of the awful foe. A moan. Ah! Comrades turn pale, clasp their breasts, strive to utter one loved name, sink slowly to the ground, and the tide of war rolls on over their quivering forms. Then silence when, the morning's roll call rallies the broken ranks.

The vision still unrolls. Patient faces press the pane for right of postman; strained eyes scan the paper dreading to see that dear name under bar of solemn black. Ah! There it is. An hour's silent agony; then with heaven's devoted light resplendent on their deep-lined faces they step out under the shadows of advancing night, lift their eyes to the starry banner waving softly above the village square, breathe a prayer of devotion to its precious folds and send another loved one to take the fallen's place.

The vision still unrolls. Now the sound of the strife is hushed into sweet anthems of peace. Soldiers come marching home; some with empty sleeve; some on crutches; some with wasted frame; some with faltering step. But on their brows a laurel such as no Caesar ever wore, nor kindly ruler ever found on battlefield of old.

This is what we here commemorate. This is what assembled throngs, lovely flowers, tear-decked faces, swelling souls and solemn proud demeanor, signify among the happy millions of our land today.

It is fitting that we should here pass in review of those illustrious patriots whose fame we celebrate today. The early era in our nation's life preserved for us a roll sublime.

The Mayflower with its noble band, and the cavaliers of the south, reaching across the grave of dead differences, sealed the spirit of Marston Moor in a wedding of Puritan and Royalist, whose offspring became a nation with such names as Adams, Hancock, Jefferson, Hamilton, Washington and the nameless humble heroes who fought their country's foe from the roadways of Lexington to the triumph of Yorktown. Jackson, Wayne, Taylor, Harrison and Scott, glorious successors to that first great band who cleared our new world for freedom's home.

But closer in this hour are the men who led our nation's defenders from the rustic quiet of peace through awful war to Appomattox. How proud the list! Thomas, the rock of Chickamauga, whose mighty soul steadied, inspired and directed his men so that the disastrous tides of defeat were rolled back, giving place to honorable triumph. Leeclidas never stood firmer at the famous pass with his Spartans than Thomas at his post at Chickamauga. Hooker, the magnificent, sweeping down his weary lines, riding like a centaur, and ablaze with fearless fire of combat, might have led the charge of the light brigade at Balaklava; the old guard for Napoleon, or the tenth legion for Caesar. Reynolds, modest but mighty, who could have taken the army at any time and led it as did Meade or Grant to Gettysburg and Appomattox. Meade, the scholar and fighter, who whipped the mighty Lee back of northern soil in the most awful battle recorded on history's page of honor. Sheridan, the fire-gale of the war; Logan, the dark eagle of the northwest; and Howard, the Havelock of the Union army, who could pray as hard as he could fight, and

And Sherman with his wonderful march to the sea. History knows almost nothing to parallel that march.

Alexander led his column from the Indus to the Euphrates, but in all that march he met no Johnston. Hannibal crossed the Alps, but he went over straight to defeat. Napoleon marched to Moscow, but it was the doom of his career, Sherman swept straight away from his base of supplies and into the very bosom of the enemy's country, and was lost to the north for weary, frightful days, right on to victory and the sea.

EAST END

EAST END FOLKS TO MAKE A TRIP

Leave Tomorrow on Steamer Kanawha, and will visit West Virginia's Capital.

Quite a number of well-known East End people will start tomorrow on a rather unique outing, which has been planned for the past two months. A part of the excursionists commenced the trip last night, when they joined the Steamer Kanawha, en route to Pittsburgh. They will have nearly two days to spend in the Smoky City, and during their stay will make the boat headquarters, eating and sleeping there.

On the down trip tomorrow they will be joined by a party of a dozen or more for a trip on the boat to Charleston, the capital of West Virginia. They will spend a couple of days there or in side trips to some of the historic spots near. Those who left on the Kanawha last evening were: Mr. and Mrs. John S. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Dixon.

SEVERAL WERE DRUNK

Where Liquor Was Obtained is a Mystery, as Saloons Are Thought to Have Been Closed.

More disturbance was noted in the East End yesterday than for several weeks and Officer Fisher found it necessary to send to refractory citizens down to the city hall, lodging a charge of drunkenness against them. Several cases of intoxication are reported and the question of where the liquor was obtained has been raised.

It is generally believed that all the East End saloons maintain a strict observance of the Sunday closing laws and it is thought that the inevitable speak-easy has been brought into existence. A close watch is being maintained by the East End police and the violators of the law will fall into their hands.

Thrown from a Buggy.

James White, bar tender at Maxwell's saloon, was thrown from a buggy yesterday evening, at Mulberry street and Fire alley, but escaped with a few slight bruises and scratches. The animal took fright at an approaching car and the buggy came in contact with a pole, smashing one of the wheels. There were several small children in the vehicle, but they were not hurt.

Inspected a College.

Rev. G. W. Orcutt, of the Erie street Methodist Church, who returned last Thursday from Chicago, visited the Garrett Biblical Institute, at Evanston, 12 miles north of the Windy City. Rev. Mr. Orcutt is a member of the conference visiting committee for this institution and the other members were with him on the tour of inspection. The report will be made to the next conference meeting.

East End Affairs.

Mrs. Wright and son spent yesterday with relatives at Hookstown.

S. S. Laferre, of Dixonville, is confined to his home with a threatened attack of fever.

The East End potteries were practically deserted today, most of the operatives attending the N. B. of O. P. picnic.

of any soldier that looks out upon us from history's page.

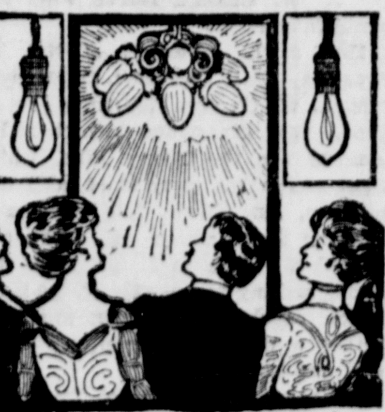

Lincoln, noblest of them all; Father Abraham to the suffering soldier on the field; Old Abe to the anxious ones at home; Honest Abe to the country at large; Mr. Lincoln to the astonished, awestruck statesmen of the world. He had Plato's mind, Washington's unselfishness, Richieu's astuteness, the tenderness of a mother and the lofty spiritual soul of Elijah, and stands above the mighty of all ages—God's demonstration to human fears; God's concession to liberty's support.

And greater than all, the private soldier, the real hero of the war, stands out before us colossal in the majesty of his humble valor. Those great leaders recounted here, saw fame, honor, rich prizes of immortality glittering before them. The private was inspired by hope of no such reward. They rode; he must march through mud and dust, in storm or heat. They were fed, sheltered, served; he must lie down at night with no bed but the cold, wet soil beneath him; no canopy but the overcast skies above, or stand through the long, dreary night on picket line, guarding the army's safety and rest. He must receive unsheltered the fire of the foe. He must plunge into the vortex of hurrying death, and with his comrades mowed down as grass before the scythe. Yet with no prize but an honorable discharge, with no reward but that of a manly breast and unchallenged flag, he must return to his home to live in a broken way that remnant of the life that was left to him.

What could have been done by Lincoln, the sublime; Grant, the resolute; or Sherman, the splendid, without these unsung heroes in the ranks? Pay them with our country's gold? Grant them precedence in our civil life? Cast our garlands upon their graves? Uncover yearly in the presence of that thin line that surrounds yonder memorial hall when the nation's Sabbath returns again? What are all these in return for their transcendent sacrifice for the nation?

Is it not thy distinction, noble patriot, who kept a private's place with in the ranks, that not all our praise, not all our gold, can discharge the debt we owe, nor give thee honor as thy due? Enlarge your thought and circle proudly through that luminous area of life and hope lit up by lessens from war.

Has it not been said that no nation can safely depend upon its citizens' volunteer service for its defense?

Disdainfully rulers have pointed out the nations of all ages, not one of which has ever succeeded in a great war by dependence upon the citizen soldier. The fighter must be segregated with his kind, trained long in the business of war till he develops its spirit as well as its art.

Rome had its military class. Macedonia had its soldiers. Carthage had hers, with Hannibal at their head. Each had its special standing army. Not so America. Our sons were wrestling with the forest, knew no implement but that of honest industry; and when its hour of danger came, went forth a call for help to peace-loving citizens. From the home to the muster field was but a day. Straight from the commissariat to the battle field they marched and these citizen soldiers wrote into history the world's greatest, most terrible, as well as noblest war. At Fredericksburg they stormed a solid granite wall. At Gettysburg they repelled as fierce and deadly a charge as any veteran brigade in the annals of man. What he lacked in training the volunteer soldier made up in fierce devotion and intelligent action. This country entered that war the derision of the world, because of our soldiers' conduct upon the battlefield it emerged the proud and unchallenged superior of any nation under heaven.

Our faith teaching brotherly kindness, our respect and devotion to women, our regard for the unfortunate our quick and earnest devotion to the founder of our faith, might enervate, unman our citizens till they would shrink from frowning cannon and the war cry of a foe. The south fondly fancied that because we made such a fuss about the sufferings of a slave we were too effeminate to fight. The world sneered at our brave eloquence and defiant rally when Sumter's flag went down at the command of Davis and the south. But mortal man never was braver; no army ever exhibited more reckless courage in the deadliest strife; on sea with the immortal Farragut lashed to his shrouds in the teeth of a gale of shot, or on land at Mission Ridge, with reckless bravery climbing in the face of sheeted death.

After second Bull Run a wounded captain was ordered to report at once with his company at his colonel's tent for important duty. When he came, followed by one lone private, whose face streamed with blood, "Where are your men, sir," cried the frate colonel. Gulping down a great sorrow the captain replied, as he lined up with his single follower, "We are all here, sir; all that is left of us."

In fact it is the genius of democracy that it should be self-supporting. What is liberty? It is rights of self-government. But it is also self-government so exercised as to promote the welfare of others. Slavery was the smallpox of democracy. It was the enemy of equality socially. It was the enemy of equality industrially. It was the enemy of equality politically. Two civilizations were wrestling upon this continent. The house was divided against itself. War was inevitable. "Union" was the shibboleth. The real issue was industrial, social and political equality. The north did not begin the war. The south assumed that burden and their attack was rebellion, not revolution.

Slavery was a violation of the spirit of our government. The north did not insist upon its destruction. The south insisted upon its extension and this determination led to their attack upon the union. They had no cause for revolution, it was rebellion, and rebellion meant anarchy. If thirteen states might rebel against the authority of the union with the purpose of justifying an unlawful institution, then any state might do the same. If Carolina, then Ohio. If Ohio, then Columbiana county. If this county, then East Liverpool. If this city, then any single ward. If a ward, then a precinct. If a precinct, then an individual. At any time any man who was not suited by the laws his community had lawfully enacted might secede from the government. Become a law unto himself and demand his right to refuse obedience to government.

Secession meant anarchy. Secession meant the right of any man to deny those regulations which by lawful methods had been determined as beneficial to the community. The logic of Jefferson Davis was the anarchist who shot down McKinley. The logic of the rebellion is the frenzied mob that demolishes jails and slaughters the accused without process of law.

The heroes of the civil war are the nation's eternal bulwark against the red assassin of anarchy. Lawlessness that pilfers prosperity, assails virtue, oppresses the weak and destroys life was arrayed with secession against the union and went down condemned at Appomattox, buried in the same grave that yawned to receive slavery.

Lawlessness that disregards pledges and oaths made to the people by those set in seats of authority over us was hurled into loathsome as it was dangerous into that same hospitable grave. Henceforth political ambition must be fostered by honesty, ability and courage, or in the name of Appomattox its sentence shall be executed.

Business that is harmful to character, health and happiness, that disqualifies men for citizenship, that robs them of domestic virtues, that breathes the debasing breath of hell into the fair soul of manhood, went down condemned into that same grave at Appomattox, and since, despite its intrenchment in human greed, its lofty bulwark of gold, it remains our privilege and holy task to see that the sentence of its appeal to the arbitrament of war be executed.

Soldiers, I am awed by the apparent diffusion of those principles which by your heroism were established on this continent. Already the world's greatest political movements are towards democracy; and when in the coming years, grateful peoples freed from the ancient yoke of despotism, shall tune their anthems in honor of that age, that people by whom their freedom came, they shall turn their happy eyes toward this star that blazed lonely in the western sky—to the men who bore the Stars and Stripes in the red days of our civil war. The coming freedom of the race will follow as your great gift to man.

Special music had been arranged and the exercises were interesting and impressive. In spite of the fact that the people generally indulged in worldly pleasures throughout the entire day, the regular Memorial day ceremonies were gone through with in a manner which was most satisfactory to the interested orders.

There are 290 young men from Porto Rico being educated in this country, 25 of them at public expense. They were selected after a competitive examination, and each is allowed $100 a year for his personal expenses by the legislature of Porto Rico. Most of them have free scholarships in the institutions they attend. Several other young Porto Ricans have been sent here for an education by benevolent societies. Only a few are in colleges and universities. Now a number of American colleges have agreed to educate, tuition free, a number of Filipinos. This is one effect of expansion that cannot fail of being far-reaching in its benefits.

President Roosevelt says the knowledge gained of his country and its people in his tour across the continent has made him a better American. Incidentally it may be remarked that he was a pretty good American before he started. But what he says is well worth considering by those Americans, who, as soon as they have leisure and means to travel, rush off to Europe, ignorant of most of the greatness and wonders of our own land.

The great mass meeting held in New York to protest against the massacre of the Jews at Kischineff gave most effective expression to a feeling which Americans from Atlantic to Pacific equally share. The resolutions that the meeting adopted are in effect the resolutions of the American people, and Russia will make no mistake if she hears them as such. The whole world has a right to protest, and doubtless would, but for fear of Russia.

Wellsville wants a street car line to Lisbon. So do the rest of us, and we will get it if we possess our souls in patience. Instead of starting out to build one of her own, Wellsville might more profitably tackle the smaller but still difficult task of securing a decent wagon road from that city to East Liverpool.

The elements have struck a great blow at Kansas. Fortunately her people are sturdy and strong and will rally, even if it does appear that they are getting more than their share of calamities.

Had Lowell lived to experience the present sort of summer weather, he would doubtless have revised his famous line, making it read: "What so raw as a day in June?"

East Liverpool is patriotic and proud of her military record. Her Memorial day celebration was of an impressive order, as is usually the case.

Strikes in progress in New York city are costing $660,000 a day in wages. War is expensive. Arbitration comes cheaper.

Ex-Secretary John D. Long is glad he isn't rich. There is a lot of people who could rejoice with him if they would.

Filipino Fanatic Captured.

Manila, June 1.—Ruperto Rios, the fanatical Filipino leader in the province of Taybas, who was captured about a month ago, has been convicted of murder and sentenced to death. Twenty-seven of his followers also were convicted and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment. A detachment of scouts has defeated and scattered the Omeigut island insurgents, killing 18 of them. This, it is believed, will end the opposition to the government in that place.

WELLSVILLE

LOVING TRIBUTE PAID TO DEAD VETERANS

Impressive Memorial Services in Honor of Wellsville's Soldier Dead.

The citizens of Wellsville on Saturday paid their tribute to those who went to the front and fought for the nation in the civil war. Most of the business places were closed and a large number of the buildings were prettily decorated.

The procession formed at the public square at 7:30 a. m. and at 8 moved down Main street. The order was as follows:

Chief Marshal T. A. Lloyd and Aids. General Reilly Camp, S. of V. Cope Post, G. A. R. Knights of Pythias. Haines' Band, East Liverpool. Delegation from Trades and Labor Council and Other Labor Organizations. Carriages.

The procession marched to Ninth street, where it halted and the school children formed in line. The march then continued out Tenth street to Spring Hill cemetery.

The program at the cemetery opened with prayer by Rev. W. C. Prewitt, followed by song, "America," by chorus. The next was the decoration of graves. Old soldiers with their arms filled with beautiful flowers performed this service.

After the decoration of the graves, the bugle sounded and Dr. B. R. Parke read President Lincoln's address at Gettysburg, followed by the benediction by Rev. C. E. Clark. The procession again formed and marched back to town.

The committee who had charge of the arrangements for the celebration was: S. S. Cope, chairman; T. A. Lloyd, Frank Kelly, Mrs. T. L. Apple, Wilson Smith, A. B. Stubbs, Mrs. K. F. Davidson and W. C. Fraser. This committee deserves great credit.

BRAKEMAN KILLED AT YELLOW CREEK

Received Injuries from Striking a Bridge That Soon Caused His Death.

Gus Albright, a C. & P. brakeman, whose home is in Wheeling, sustained injuries Friday while at work on a local freight that resulted in his death a few hours later. Young Albright was standing erect upon the top of a car and failed to note his rapid approach to the Yellow Creek bridge.

The overhead structure work caught the unfortunate man, throwing him violently from the car to the ground. His loss was early discovered by the crew, who at once went back, picked him up and took him on to Wellsville, where despite medical aid he died. The remains were taken to Wheeling for burial. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Albright, and was about 25 years of age.

Child Badly Scalded.

The one-year-old child of Edward Renoff, Fifth street, was badly scalded Friday evening. The family were at supper and Mrs. Renoff was holding the little child in her lap. The baby caught at the table, struck a cup of coffee and the contents splashed over its face and chest. The burns were very painful.

SOUTH SIDE

TERRIBLY BITTEN BY SAVAGE DOG

JOHN SULLIVAN, AGED 16, CAME NEAR BEING KILLED.

Big Newfoundland Jumped on Him And Gave His Neck a Bad Wound.

Had it not been for the prompt action of John Heath in calling off a vicious dog, John Sullivan, a 16-year-old lad of Lawrenceville, would have been bitten to death on Friday evening. As it was he was badly injured and the bites may result in his death.

Young Sullivan is a resident of Lawrenceville and is employed at the Rock Springs bowling alleys. He went to the home of Joshua Steele, a colored man, also residing in Lawrenceville, last Friday, and as he passed through the front room of the house he was attacked by a dog belonging to Steele.

The dog is a large one, being of the Newfoundland breed, and while he was known to be a good watch dog he had never attacked any one before.

When Sullivan approached the dog sprang at him and fixed his teeth in the boy's neck just under the left ear.

The force of the blow caused the lad to fall, and the infuriated beast would have made short work of him had not Heath put in an appearance at this juncture.

Heath is a son-in-law of Steele, and had been in fear of the dog for some time. He had seen several conclusive proofs of his treachery and was not surprised at what he saw on this occasion.

He cried out at the top of his voice and the dog let go his hold. This gave Sullivan an opportunity to escape and he lost no time in taking advantage of it. The boy's neck was torn and the wound bled profusely.

Dr. Lewis was summoned hurriedly, and after dressing the hurt, sewed several stitches in it. The lad suffered some pain and was weakened from loss of blood. He is still confined to his home, and if he escapes blood poisoning it will be more fortunate than many of his friends think.

Later in the day Heath killed the dog.

A GREAT BUSINESS

One at the Park—The New Attractions Much Appreciated.

All of the attractions at Rock Springs park were running full blast on the evening of the school picnic and the large crowd did not disperse until a late hour. On Memorial day the attendance at the park was very large both afternoon and evening, the dancing being especially enjoyed. The opening of the new summer theater and old mill were events which an immense crowd enjoyed, and the attractions were voted the best of the kind ever seen in the city.

All pronounce the theater perfect, and predict a prosperous and successful season for the institution.

The Tribe of Ben Hur excursion from Pittsburgh and vicinity on Saturday brought 39 well filled coaches and a big crowd.

TWO WEEKS' PAY

Given to the Employees of the Chester Tin Plate Mill on Friday.

The management of the Chester tin mill paid its employees on Friday afternoon. It was not the regular pay day, but on account of Memorial day falling on Saturday the concern concluded to settle the day before. Notices were posted throughout the factory, stating that envelopes would be distributed between the hours of 8 in the morning and 11:30 at noon. The notices informed the employees that no envelopes would be given out at any other times, and every man was on hand within the specified time.

The workmen were given a two weeks' pay and the merchants of Chester are all profiting by the large amount of money put in circulation.

THE PRESIDENT AT CHEYENNE

Listens to a Sermon on "Strenuousness" in the Morning and Visits Ranch in the Afternoon.

Cheyenne, Wyo., June 1.—Although Sunday was supposed to be entirely given over to rest by President Roosevelt, he was on the go most of the day. The chief executive and party attended the First Methodist church in the morning, where special services for the president were held. The Rev. Mr. Forsythe preached a beautiful sermon on "Strenuousness." Immediately at the close of the service carriages were taken to the residence of former Senator Carey, where luncheon was served. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Secretary to the President Loeb, Assistant Secretary Barnes, Surgeon General Rixey, Captain Seth Bullock, Senator Warren, Governor and Mrs. Chatterton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Carey and Robert Carey were guests at luncheon.

In the afternoon a long procession of carriages, headed by the president and party, started for Senator Warren's ranches, 14 miles south of the city. Here the routine work on one of Wyoming's biggest ranches was shown the party. An elegant supper was served, after which the start for Cheyenne was made. When the president reached his hotel he was in jubilant spirits and remarked that he was looking forward with great pleasure to the frontier exhibition.

Previous to starting for the Warren ranches the Eagles lodge of this city presented President Roosevelt with a life membership in the order.

Secretary Moody, who has been with the presidential party since it entered California, left for Washington.

Resignations Accepted.

Erie, Pa., June 1.—Mayor William Hardwick has accepted the resignations of the city police force whose signatures were affixed to the ultimatum sent to him last Tuesday, in which 34 patrolmen stated that unless their salaries were increased from $60 to $75 before June 1 they would leave the employ of the city. No arrangements has as yet been made for policing the city.

PITTSBURG RACE RIOT

Bloody Battle Between White Baseball Players and Negro Crap Shooters.

ATTEMPT TO LYNCH PRISONER

Two Thousand Men and Boys Participate in the Fray—Peacemaker Receives a Fatal Wound—Two Boys Shot.

Pittsburg, June 1.—Savage race riots of the south were outtrivaled in a bloody battle at High Bridge, on the Castle Shannon railroad. One negro was killed, two others were desperately wounded, two white boys were shot and severely hurt, a number of other persons were less seriously injured and only the merciful hand of apparent death spared Allegheny county from the horror of a lynching. Two thousand men and boys took part in the conflict and nearly 100 shots were exchanged.

For nearly half an hour an infuriated mob surrounded a building where two negro desperadoes held their assailants at bay until one was killed and his companion was driven to surrender himself to the crowd's vengeance by a fire which had been kindled around the frail structure. The dead:

Charles Kelle, negro, of Pasture street, shot and killed. He was 30 years old and a well-known gambler in Pittsburg.

The wounded:

William W. Davis, negro, aged 28, shot in back, beaten about head and body with stones and baseball bats; neck badly cut, where he was dragged by rope; will recover; is at South Side hospital.

Sandy Garrett, negro, aged 24, of hill on South Eighth street; bullet two inches above heart, penetrated the lung; will die; is at South Side hospital.

Joseph Tominsky, a Pole, aged 18, Nelson Foster, negro.

Herman Altenhof, aged 15 years, Knoxville; cut on forehead by flying stones.

Leo Karns, aged 14, Duquesne Heights.

The fight was the outgrowth of a reign of lawlessness which was being resumed at High Bridge. Negro gamblers from the city had followed the Sunday crowds which congregated there in the summer and attend the ball games played on a part of the grounds. A month ago the owners of the property notified the ball players that no more games could be played if the rough element was not kept away, and it was carrying out this order in the face of five armed negro gamblers that the trouble started.

In the evening Mrs. Roosevelt and her sons attended the May services at Town hall and listened to a sermon by Rev. Leighton Park, D. D., of Boston.

NOBLE AND GENEROUS THE TRIBUTES PAID

Memorial Day Services In This City of an Unusually Impressive
Character.

DR. PRATT ON THE GENIUS OF DEMOCRACY

Memorial day was more generally observed in this city Saturday than upon any previous occasion in the history of our municipality. While hundreds of citizens took the day from their office or workshop, there were few who kept it in the manner that was intended by those who, years ago, made it a season in which all our people should lay aside the usual amusements of the holiday and mourn with the surviving veteran over the heroes gone before.

The morning was devoted to the work of decorating the soldiers' graves in the outlying cemeteries, and long before noon there was not a burying ground in or around the city that had not been decked out with flags and a token of remembrance in the shape of a wreath of green and a bouquet of flowers upon the grave of every soldier buried there. The task was performed by committee from the Grand Army and sub-committees from the Sons of Veterans. The wreaths and flowers, as has been customary for many years, had been prepared by the ladies of the Relief Corps several days before.

The condition of the Wellsville lodge of Sons of Veterans has prevented it from carrying on the work of decorating, and each year a detail from this city has gone to that town on the morning of Memorial day, where they assisted the Grand Army with the ceremonies. This year the representatives from East Liverpool were larger than ever before and the aid given was appreciated by the Wellsville people.

Captain W. F. Dawson had been selected as master of ceremonies in this city, and was early on the ground. Arrangements had been made for the interested orders to assemble at the Grand Army hall on Fifth street at 1 o'clock, and long before that time the members were on the ground, and half an hour later were ready to start for the cemetery. The line was formed on Fifth street, right resting on Market. The procession was headed by the Sons of Veterans' drum corps, the Grand Army having the position of honor at the front. The Sons had 40 men in line, fully uniformed and equipped.

The line proceeded out Fifth street to Broadway; Broadway to Fourth; Fourth to Market; to East Market, where the Grand Army left the procession.

ALL IN READINESS FOR CONVENTION

HARMONY WILL RULE THE REPUBLICAN MEETING.

Agreement Reached as to Candidates for Leading Places—Endorsement for Roosevelt.

From a Staff Correspondent.
Columbus, June 1.—All preparations have been made for the big Republican state convention which will be held in this city Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Many delegates and some of the leaders will be here tomorrow, but the great bulk will not arrive until Wednesday. It will be the largest attended convention yet held by the Republicans.

Senators Hanna and Foraker and all the Ohio congressmen will be here and the gathering will be somewhat like a love feast.
As temporary chairman of the convention Senator Hanna will sound the keynote and will probably furnish the slogan for the campaign. Senator Foraker will be the permanent chairman. It is expected that the constitutional amendments on the ballot, in which act it is likely the Democratic state convention will concur in part at least. Roosevelt will be endorsed for another term.

NOT SO BAD BUT BAD ENOUGH

EARLY REPORTS OF LOSS OF LIFE EXAGGERATED.

Kansas Floods Subsiding, Though Situation is Still Bad at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., June 1.—(Special.)—There is no improvement in the flood situation. The river rose five feet during the night. All business is suspended. Probably a dozen lives have been lost to date. The situation is desperate in Kansas City, Kan., which is completely cut off.

Topeka, Kan., June 1.—It is now believed that the total number lost in the flood here will not exceed 20. Only eight buildings were destroyed by fire. The early reports were unavoidably exaggerated. The Kaw river is falling and the worst is past. The homeless are well cared for. The property loss is now estimated at $1,000,000.

ANCHOR POTTERY TIED UP BY STRIKE

Jiggermen at a Trenton Plant Went Out and Kilnmen Struck in Sympathy.

Trenton, N. J., June 1.—(Special.)—Because four jiggermen employed at the Anchor pottery, who were not members of the union, refused to join the latter, twelve union jiggermen at work there, went on a strike Friday morning and the kilnmen, numbering about 25 men, also went out, refusing to handle the ware made by the non-union jiggermen. By this action the entire plant was practically tied up and work would have had to be suspended within a day or two.

This is the first time in the history of the general ware potteries of this city that the jiggermen have appealed to the bosses or the other men, and the willingness with which the latter responded is an indication of the harmony which now exists in the local potters' union.

PATTERSON ASKS AN INJUNCTION

Carries His Fight Against C. A. Smith's New Street Car Line to Court.

NOTICES HAVE BEEN GIVEN

By the Sheriff of the Beginning of the Suit—The Franchise Ordinance Alleged to Be Invalid—City a Defendant.

Sheriff Chas. P. Leonard came to this city from the county seat Friday evening and served notice upon C. A. Smith, the projector of the new electric railway to the East End, by way of East Fifth street and Pennsylvania avenue, that a petition had been filed there by Monroe Patterson, through his attorneys, for an injunction against the carrying out of the plans of Smith and his associates.

Sheriff Leonard had some difficulty in locating Smith and it was quite late when the notice had been served. The petition as filed by Mr. Patterson sets forth several reasons why the injunction should be granted. The attorneys connected with the case are Judge P. M. Smith, of Wellsville, and Squires, Sanders & Dempsey, of Cleveland. The document first says the city solicitor has been petitioned to make the application, but had failed to do so, forcing Patterson to do so himself in behalf of the city.

The plaintiff states that on account of a portion of the right of way being over land with respect to which the city had no jurisdiction the granting of the franchise was illegal. It is claimed the franchise should be granted by competitive bidding. The law required the council to give the privileges asked to the lowest bidder. This had not been done since the East Liverpool railway was the lowest bidder. The Smith route is to be constructed a part of the way on private right of way that could never be acquired by anyone else, and therefore the franchise could not be competed for fairly. As a matter of fact, the franchise had been advertised to be granted upon a competition basis when, by reason of Smith having control of private right of way, it would be impossible for any one but him to bid, the petition says.

The meeting at which the ordinance was passed was a special one, and the action taken alleged to be illegal, as all the members had not received notice that the meeting would be held.

The petition ends by asking a restraining order to prevent C. A. Smith and his associates from executing or entering upon any contract for the construction or operation of the said railroad.

Mayor W. A. Weaver, Col. J. N. Taylor, W. L. Smith and Jacob Shenkel, of the public service board, are made the defendants and on them the sheriff served notice of the suit.

MISSION SOCIETIES

Of Steubenville Presbytery Will Hold Conventions Here This Week.

The Foreign Missionary society meets Thursday and Friday. Mrs. H. W. Parks, of Hopedale, will preside, and the sessions are expected to last until noon Friday.

Among the East Liverpool members who will take part in the meetings is Mrs. G. R. Warner, who will speak on "Why We Give, or Motives for Giving," at the Thursday afternoon session.

Rev. N. M. Crowe, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of this city, will speak Thursday evening.
At Friday's session Mrs. E. D. Moore will have charge of the morning's worship. Elaborate preparations are being made for the entertainment of the many visitors expected.

PUBLIC SERVICE BOARD ESTIMATES

MILLAGE THAT THE DEPARTMENT WILL RECOMMEND.

Ample Funds Provided if Economy Rules—Condition of Streets Discussed.

Estimates were made by the board of public service, at its meeting Friday night, for the millage necessary to operate the departments under its care. Following are the estimates to be reported to council:

Lights, general, 2; fire, 2.8; light, 2.1; police, 5; sanitary, 5.

While it was the prevailing idea with the members of the board in fixing the millage to prune all expenses to the lowest possible point, it is thought that if the proper economy is observed the funds provided will be ample. Auditor Davidson, City Engineer Kelly and City Solicitor Davidson were present and were called upon frequently for information relating to their departments. Engineer Kelly was instructed to furnish the board with a plot of the city, showing the location of all the street lights, which is to be used by the expert employed by the board.

Better fire protection for the West End potters will be afforded by extending the water main from Seventh street to the plant.

The condition of the streets and alleys was discussed and Street Commissioner Dickey submitted a plan for keeping them free from filth and rubbish.

Council has asked the board to look into the matter of the obstruction and sewer stoppage on Pennsylvania avenue. The attention of the city engineer and street commissioner was directed to the matter.

Before the close of the meeting the members of the board were served by the sheriff with notice of the injunction proceedings against the projectors of the new East End electric railway by Sheriff Leonard.

Another meeting of the board will be held tonight.

THE POTTERS' PICNIC AT ROCK SPRINGS PARK IS A GREAT SUCCESS

Attendance Not As Large As It Has Been, But
the Lack Is Made Up In Enthusiasm.

The annual Brotherhood picnic is being held at Rock Springs park this afternoon, and while the crowd is much smaller than has been known on other occasions, the potters and their friends are making up in enthusiasm and a determination to thoroughly enjoy the day, what they lack in numbers. The weather looked threatening this morning, and coupled with the fact that no arrangements could possibly be made for special rates or special trains on the C. & P., the attendance from other pottery towns was small.

There were a few operatives and their friends from Sebring, East Palestine, Toronto and Steubenville present. They took advantage of the fact that work was not brisk at this time to pay a visit to friends in this city, and are at the park this afternoon. It was expected that a large crowd would attend from New Cumberland, as an excursion rate had been obtained on the Panhandle, but very few came this morning. Quite a crowd came in this afternoon.

The large crowd thoroughly enjoyed the day, and the dancing and other amusements will be enjoyed until well into the night.

The general committee was composed of the following well known Brotherhood men: William Elder, chairman; T. J. Duffy, Edward Menge, Shel Moore, John Wood, A. S. Coleman, George Smith, William Adams, Sr. Each of the several departments was in charge of a competent man and able assistants.

The busiest place was the dancing pavilion. At 4 o'clock the base ball game between the jiggermen and pressers was scheduled to take place.

PAINFUL BURNS WERE RECEIVED

In Blazing House—Family Asleep in a Sebring Dwelling Gets Out with Great Difficulty.

Sebring, June 1.—A brick dwelling house was completely destroyed by fire at midnight, entailing a loss of $2,000. The building was owned by E. H. Sebring and was occupied by I. H. Blackman, his wife and her son, a young man named Carlton Smith, 25 years old, and employed as foreman at one of the china plants. Smith and his mother were seriously burned.

The origin of the fire is unknown. When the occupants, sleeping on the second floor, awoke, the stairway was in flames. Young Smith grasped his mother in his arms and carried her down the blazing stairway in safety, though both were terribly burned in the flames. The patients were at once taken to the Alliance hospital. It is not believed that he can survive. The mother will recover. Mr. Blackman leaped from the rear window and was uninjured. The family recently located here, coming from Bridgeport, Conn.

EAST END

EAST END FOLKS TO MAKE A TRIP

Leave Tomorrow on Steamer Kanawha, and will visit West Virginia's Capital.

Quite a number of well-known East End people will start tomorrow on a rather unique outing, which has been planned for the past two months. A part of the excursionists commenced the trip last night, when they joined the Steamer Kanawha, en route to Pittsburgh. They will have nearly two days to spend in the Smoky City, and during their stay will make the boat headquarters, eating and sleeping there.

On the down trip tomorrow they will be joined by a party of a dozen or more for a trip on the boat to Charleston, the capital of West Virginia. They will spend a couple of days there or in side trips to some of the historic spots near. Those who left on the Kanawha last evening were: Mr. and Mrs. John S. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Dixon.

SEVERAL WERE DRUNK

Where Liquor Was Obtained is a Mystery, as Saloons Are Thought to Have Been Closed.

More disturbance was noted in the East End yesterday than for several weeks and Officer Fisher found it necessary to send to refractory citizens down to the city hall, lodging a charge of drunkenness against them. Several cases of intoxication are reported and the question of where the liquor was obtained has been raised.

It is generally believed that all the East End saloons maintain a strict observance of the Sunday closing laws and it is thought that the inevitable speak-easy has been brought into existence. A close watch is being maintained by the East End police and the violators of the law will fall into their hands.

Thrown from a Buggy.

James White, bar tender at Maxwell's saloon, was thrown from a buggy yesterday evening, at Mulberry street and Fire alley, but escaped with a few slight bruises and scratches. The animal took fright at an approaching car and the buggy came in contact with a pole, smashing one of the wheels. There were several small children in the vehicle, but they were not hurt.

The report will be made to the next conference meeting.

Ellis Hester and Elizabeth Denny were married near Alliance. Friends decided to give them an old-time "bell-ringing." To increase the noise they exploded dynamite and four serenaders were hurt.

At Wellsburg, W. Va., a cat fish was the cause of an all-day shut down in the S. George paper mill. The fish, which weighed 28 pounds, had become lodged in the water supply pipe leading up from the river.

The building of a trolley line to parallel the Ft. Wayne railroad between Rochester and Pittsburgh is said to be in contemplation by the Pennsylvania company. Rights of way from Sewickley to Rochester have already been secured, it is said, and plans drawn.

Uncle Reuben's Opinion.

"They may say what they please, but listen—hear me; I've taken all kinds of laxatives, purgatives and cathartics but when it comes to one that is easy and pleasant to take, mild and gentle in its action, and that makes one want an extra slice of bacon for breakfast, just give me Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you may have all the laxative virtue, dyspepsia medicines and pills little or big, there is in this country. Them Tablets surely to make one feel joyful." For sale by Alvin & Bulger.

NOBLE AND GENEROUS THE TRIBUTES PAID

of any soldier that looks out upon us from history's page.

Lincoln, noblest of them all; Father Abraham to the suffering soldier on the field; Old Abe to the anxious ones at home; Honest Abe to the country at large; Mr. Lincoln to the astonished, awe-struck statesmen of the world. He had Plato's mind, Washington's unselfishness, Richien's astuteness, the tenderness of a mother and the lofty spiritual soul of Elijah, and stands above the mighty of all ages—God's demonstration to human fears; God's concession to liberty's support.

And greater than all, the private soldier, the real hero of the war, stands out before us colossal in the majesty of his humble valor. Those great leaders recounted here, saw fame, honor, rich prizes of immortality glittering before them.

The private was inspired by hope of no such reward. They rode; he must march through mud and dust, in storm or heat. They were fed, sheltered, served; he must lie down at night with no bed but the cold, wet soil beneath him; no canopy but the overcast skies above, or stand through the long, dreary night on picket line, guarding the army's safety and rest.

He must receive unsheltered the fire of the foe. He must plunge into the vortex of hurrying death, and with his comrades mowed down as grass before the scythe. Yet with no prize but an honorable discharge, with no reward but that of a manly breast and unchallenged flag, he must return to his home to live in a broken way that remnant of the life that was left to him.

What could have been done by Lincoln, the sublime; Grant, the resistless, or Sherman, the splendid, without these unsung heroes in the ranks? Pay them with our country's gold? Grant them precedence in our civil life? Cast our garlands upon their graves? Uncover yearly in the presence of that thin line that surrounds yonder memorial hall when the nation's Sabbath returns again? What are all these in return for their transcendent sacrifice for the nation?

Is it not thy distinction, noble patriot, who kept a private's place with in the ranks, that not all our praise, not all our gold, can discharge the debt we owe, nor give thee honor as thy due? Enlarge your thought and circle proudly through that luminous area of life and hope lit up by lessons from war.

Has it not been said that no nation can safely depend upon its citizens' volunteer service for its defense?

Our faith teaching brotherly kindness, our respect and devotion to women, our regard for the unfortunate, our quick and earnest devotion to the founder of our faith, might enervate, unman our citizens till they would shrink from frowning cannon and the war cry of a foe. The south fondly fancied that because we made such a fuss about the sufferings of a slave we were too effeminate to fight. The world sneered at our brave eloquence and defiant rally when Sumter's flag went down at the command of Davis and the south. But mortal man never was braver; no army ever exhibited more reckless courage in the deadliest strife; on sea with the immortal Farragut lashed to his shouts in the teeth of a gale of shot, or on land at Mission Ridge, with reckless bravery climbing in the face of sheeted death.

After second Bull Run a wounded captain was ordered to report at once with his company at his colonel's tent for important duty. When he came, followed by one lone private, whose face streamed with blood, "Where are your men, sir?" cried the frate colonel. Gulping down a great sorrow the captain replied, as he lined up with his single follower, "We are all here, sir; all that is left of us."

In fact it is the genius of democracy that it should be self-supporting. What is liberty? It is rights of self-government. But it is also self-government so exercised as to promote the welfare of others. Slavery was the smallpox of democracy. It was the enemy of equality socially. It was the enemy of equality industrially. It was the enemy of equality politically. Two civilizations were wrestling upon this continent. The house was divided against itself. War was inevitable. Disdainfully rulers have pointed out the nations of all ages, not one of which has ever succeeded in a great war by dependence upon the citizen soldier. The fighter must be segregated with his kind, trained long in the business of war till he develops its spirit as well as its art.

Rome had its military class, Macedonia had its soldiers, Carthage had hers, with Hannibal at their head. Each had its special standing army. Not so America. Our sons were wrestling with the forest, knew no implement but that of honest industry; and when their hour of danger came, went forth a call for help to peace-loving citizens. From the home to the muster field was but a day. Straight from the commissariat to the battle field they marched and these citizen soldiers wrote into history the world's greatest, most terrible, as well as noblest war. At Fredericksburg they stormed a solid granite wall. At Gettysburg they repelled as fierce and deadly a charge as any veteran brigade in the annals of man. What he lacked in training the volunteer soldier made up in fierce devotion and intelligent action. This country entered that war the derision of the world, because of our soldiers' conduct upon the battlefield it emerged the proud and unchallenged superior of any nation under heaven.

Our faith teaching brotherly kindness, our respect and devotion to women, our regard for the unfortunate, our quick and earnest devotion to the founder of our faith, might enervate, unman our citizens till they would shrink from frowning cannon and the war cry of a foe. The south fondly fancied that because we made such a fuss about the sufferings of a slave we were too effeminate to fight. The world sneered at our brave eloquence and defiant rally when Sumter's flag went down at the command of Davis and the south. But mortal man never was braver; no army ever exhibited more reckless courage in the deadliest strife; on sea with the immortal Farragut lashed to his shouts in the teeth of a gale of shot, or on land at Mission Ridge, with reckless bravery climbing in the face of sheeted death.

After second Bull Run a wounded captain was ordered to report at once with his company at his colonel's tent for important duty. When he came, followed by one lone private, whose face streamed with blood, "Where are your men, sir?" cried the frate colonel. Gulping down a great sorrow the captain replied, as he lined up with his single follower, "We are all here, sir; all that is left of us."

In fact it is the genius of democracy that it should be self-supporting. What is liberty? It is rights of self-government. But it is also self-government so exercised as to promote the welfare of others. Slavery was the smallpox of democracy. It was the enemy of equality socially. It was the enemy of equality industrially. It was the enemy of equality politically. Two civilizations were wrestling upon this continent. The house was divided against itself. War was inevitable. "Union" was the shibboleth. The real issue was industrial, social and political equality. The north did not begin the war. The south assumed that burden and their attack was rebellion, not revolution.

Slavery was a violation of the spirit of our government. The north did not insist upon its destruction. The south insisted upon its extension and this determination led to their attack upon the union. They had no cause for revolution, it was rebellion, and rebellion meant anarchy. If thirteen states might rebel against the authority of the union with the purpose of justifying an unlawful institution, then any state might do the same. If Carolina, then Ohio. If Ohio, then Columbiana county. If this county, then East Liverpool. If this city, then any single ward. If a ward, then a precinct. If a precinct, then an individual. At any time any man who was not suited by the laws his community had lawfully enacted might secede from the government. Become a law unto himself and demand his right to refuse obedience to government.

Secession meant anarchy. Secession meant the right of any man to deny those regulations which by lawful methods had been determined as beneficial to the community. The logic of Jefferson Davis was the anarchist who shot down McKinley. The logic of the rebellion is the frenzied mob that demolishes jails and slaughters the accused without process of law.

The heroes of the civil war are the nation's eternal bulwark against the red assassin of anarchy. Lawlessness that pilfers prosperity, assails virtue, oppresses the weak and destroys life was arrayed with secession against the union and went down condemned at Appomattox, buried in the same grave that yawned to receive slavery.

Lawlessness that disregards pledges and oaths made to the people by those set in seats of authority over us was hurled all loathsome as it was dangerous into that same hospitable grave. Henceforth political ambition must be tested by honesty, ability and courage, or in the name of Appomattox its sentence shall be executed.

Business that is harmful to character, health and happiness, that disqualifies men for citizenship, that robs them of domestic virtues, that breathes the debasing breath of hell into the fair soul of manhood, went down condemned into that same grave at Appomattox, and since, despite its intrenchment in human greed, its lofty bulwark of gold, it remains our privilege and holy task to see that the sentence of its appeal to the arbitrament of war be executed.

Soldiers, I am awed by the apparent diffusion of those principles which by your heroism were established on this continent. Already the world's greatest political movements are towards democracy; and when in the coming years, grateful peoples freed from the ancient yoke of despotism, shall tune their anthems in honor of that age, that people by whom their freedom came, they shall turn their happy eyes toward this star that blazed lonely in the western sky—to the men who bore the Stars and Stripes in the red days of our civil war. The coming freedom of the race will follow as your great gift to man.

Special music had been arranged and the exercises were interesting and impressive. In spite of the fact that the people generally indulged in worldly pleasures throughout the entire day, the regular Memorial day ceremonies were gone through with in a manner which was most satisfactory to the interested orders.

There are 200 young men from Porto Rico being educated in this country, 25 of them at public expense. They were selected after a competitive examination, and each is allowed $100 a year for his personal expenses by the legislature of Porto Rico. Most of them have free scholarships in the institutions they attend. Several other young Porto Ricans have been sent here for an education by benevolent societies. Only a few are in colleges and universities. Now a number of American colleges have agreed to educate, tuition free, a number of Filipinos. This is one effect of expansion that cannot fail of being far-reaching in its benefits.

President Roosevelt says the knowledge gained of his country and its people in his tour across the continent has made him a better American. Incidentally it may be remarked that he was a pretty good American before he started. But what he says is well worth considering by those Americans, who, as soon as they have leisure and means to travel, rush off to Europe, ignorant of most of the greatness and wonders of our own land.

The great mass meeting held in New York to protest against the massacre of the Jews at Kischineff gave most effective expression to a feeling which Americans from Atlantic to Pacific equally share. The resolutions that the meeting adopted are in effect the resolutions of the American people, and Russia will make no mistake if she hears them as such. The whole world has a right to protest, and doubtless would, but for fear of Russia.

Wellsville wants a street car line to Lisbon. So do the rest of us, and we will get it if we possess our souls in patience. Instead of starting out to build one of her own, Wellsville might more profitably tackle the smaller but still difficult task of securing a decent wagon road from that city to East Liverpool.

The elements have struck a great blow at Kansas. Fortunately her people are sturdy and strong and will rally, even if it does appear that they are getting more than their share of calamities.

Had Lowell lived to experience the present sort of summer weather, he would doubtless have revised his famous line, making it read: "What so raw as a day in June?"

East Liverpool is patriotic and proud of her military record. Her Memorial day celebration was of an impressive order, as is usually the case.

Strikes in progress in New York city are costing $660,000 a day in wages. War is expensive. Arbitration comes cheaper.

Ex-Secretary John D. Long is glad he isn't rich. There is a lot of people who could rejoice with him if they would.

This, it is believed, will end the opposition to the government in that place.

THE FLOOD AT KANSAS CITY

Water Four Feet Above High Water Marks of 1881—Enormous Destruction of Property.

Kansas City, Mo., June 1.—With the waters of the Kaw and Missouri rivers nearly four feet above the disastrous level of 1881 and their swollen tide spread over 12 square miles of the city and its suburbs, Kansas City is in the worst flood of its history.

In the valley of the Kaw or Kansas river, between this city and Kansas City, Kan., a report has it that a number of lives have been lost. One report says 14 and another 50, but in the midst of demoralization of traffic and the ordinary means of communication it is impossible to verify these reports. Some believe that no lives have been lost.

The financial loss has been increasing and bids fair to continue. The heaviest is at Armourdale, where the losses to the packing industry and others is placed at $2,500,000. Argentine, another suburb, has suffered losses estimated at $500,000. Other losses will increase the total very materially. Armourdale, with a population of 16,000, is deserted, and its site marked only by the tops of buildings and a number of fires. Seven fires, believed to be chiefly box cars burning, could be seen from the bluffs. There is some danger that the flames will spread to the partially submerged buildings, adding greatly to the already heavy loss. The fire started from the flowing of the water into a lime house. Refugees from Armourdale for the most part are huddled together in the immense auditorium of the convention hall, although several hundred found refuge with friends in more fortunate parts of the city. Two-thirds of Argentine is under water. More than 4,500 people in this suburb found safety in the higher part of the town.

All bridges over the Kaw river are down and the only communication with Armourdale is by boat.

Kansas City is without a water supply, the flood having disabled the pumping station and the utmost care is being taken that no fires shall break out. Only one street car line in the city is running, owing to the disabling of the power plants by the flood.

The railroad yards are blockaded. Not a train has gone out of the city except to the east, and it is said that there is little prospect of an improvement in the situation for several days. Twelve bodies were counted as they floated past. In nearly every instance they were lying across pieces of wreckage. On the roof of a cabin that came swirling down could be seen the body of a woman and her child.

Quiet Day at Jackson.

Jackson, Ky., June 1.—Sunday was a quiet day in Jackson. Save for the inspection in the morning, an unusually large number of curious visitors from the country and a search of the jail, the hours passed monotonously for the troops. Saturday night was without special incident. Fearing that a weapon or saw might be passed to Jett or Tom White by some visitor, Colonel Williams took the precaution to have every cell in the jail examined, but nothing was found. Nothing had occurred to arouse Colonel Williams' suspicions, but it was remembered that when Jett was in jail here last winter, under a peace bond, a crowbar and a hatchet were taken to him and he found no difficulty in liberating himself.

WELLSVILLE

LOVING TRIBUTE PAID TO DEAD VETERANS

Impressive Memorial Services in Honor of Wellsville's Soldier Dead.

The citizens of Wellsville on Saturday paid their tribute to those who went to the front and fought for the nation in the civil war. Most of the business places were closed and a large number of the buildings were prettily decorated.

The procession formed at the public square at 7:30 a. m. and at 8 moved down Main street. The order was as follows:

Chief Marshal T. A. Lloyd and Aids, General Reilly Camp, S. of V. Cope Post, G. A. R. Knights of Pythias. Haines' Band, East Liverpool. Delegation from Trades and Labor Council and Other Labor Organizations. Carriages.

The procession marched to Ninth street, where it halted and the school children formed in line. The march then continued out Tenth street to Spring Hill cemetery.

The program at the cemetery opened with prayer by Rev. W. C. Prewitt, followed by song, "America," by chorus. The next was the decoration of graves. Old soldiers with their arms filled with beautiful flowers performed this service.

After the decoration of the graves, the bugle sounded and Dr. B. R. Parke read President Lincoln's address at Gettysburg, followed by the benediction by Rev. C. E. Clark. The procession again formed and marched back to town.

The committee who had charge of the arrangements for the celebration was: S. S. Cope, chairman; T. A. Lloyd, Frank Kelly, Mrs. T. L. Apple, Wilson Smith, A. B. Stubbins, Mrs. K. F. Davidson and W. C. Fraser. This committee deserves great credit.

BRAKEMAN KILLED AT YELLOW CREEK

Received Injuries from Striking a Bridge That Soon Caused His Death.

Gus Albright, a C. & P. brakeman, whose home is in Wheeling, sustained injuries Friday while at work on a local freight that resulted in his death a few hours later. Young Albright was standing erect upon the top of a car and failed to note his rapid approach to the Yellow Creek bridge. The overhead structure work caught the unfortunate man, throwing him violently from the car to the ground.

His loss was early discovered by the crew, who at once went back, picked him up and took him on to Wellsville, where despite medical aid he died. The remains were taken to Wheeling for burial. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Albright, and was about 25 years of age.

Child Badly Scalded.

The one-year-old child of Edward Renoff, Fifth street, was badly scalded Friday evening. The family were at supper and Mrs. Renoff was holding the little child in her lap. The baby caught at the table, struck a cup of coffee and the contents splashed over its face and chest. The burns were very painful.

SOUTH SIDE

TERRIBLY BITTEN BY SAVAGE DOG

JOHN SULLIVAN, AGED 16, CAME NEAR BEING KILLED.

Big Newfoundland Jumped on Him And Gave His Neck a Bad Wound.

Had it not been for the prompt action of John Heath in calling off a vicious dog, John Sullivan, a 16-year-old lad of Lawrenceville, would have been bitten to death on Friday evening. As it was he was badly injured and the bites may result in his death.

Young Sullivan is a resident of Lawrenceville and is employed at the Rock Springs bowling alleys. He went to the home of Joshua Steele, a colored man, also residing in Lawrenceville, last Friday, and as he passed through the front room of the house he was attacked by a dog belonging to Steele. The dog is a large one, being of the Newfoundland breed, and while he was known to be a good watch dog he had never attacked any one before. When Sullivan approached the dog sprang at him and fixed his teeth in the boy's neck just under the left ear.

The force of the blow caused the lad to fall, and the infuriated beast would have made short work of him had not Heath put in an appearance at this juncture. Heath is a son-in-law of Steele, and had been in fear of the dog for some time. He had seen several conclusive proofs of his treachery and was not surprised at what he saw on this occasion. He cried out at the top of his voice and the dog let go his hold. This gave Sullivan an opportunity to escape and he lost no time in taking advantage of it. The boy's neck was torn and the wound bled profusely.

Dr. Lewis was summoned hurriedly, and after dressing the hurt, sewed several stitches in it. The lad suffered some pain and was weakened from loss of blood. He is still confined to his home, and if he escapes blood poisoning it will be more fortunate than many of his friends think. Later in the day Heath killed the dog.

A GREAT BUSINESS

One at the Park—The New Attractions Much Appreciated.

All of the attractions at Rock Springs park were running full blast on the evening of the school picnic and the large crowd did not disperse until a late hour. On Memorial day the attendance at the park was very large both afternoon and evening, the dancing being especially enjoyed. The opening of the new summer theater and old mill were events which an immense crowd enjoyed, and the attractions were voted the best of the kind ever seen in the city. All pronounce the theater perfect, and predict a prosperous and successful season for the institution.

The Tribe of Ben Hur excursion from Pittsburgh and vicinity on Saturday brought 39 well filled coaches and a big crowd.

TWO WEEKS' PAY

Given to the Employees of the Chester Tin Plate Mill on Friday.

The management of the Chester tin mill paid its employees on Friday afternoon. It was not the regular pay day, but on account of Memorial day falling on Saturday the concern concluded to settle the day before. Notices were posted throughout the factory, stating that envelopes would be distributed between the hours of 8 in the morning and 11:30 at noon. The notices informed the employees that no envelopes would be given out at any other times, and every man was on hand within the specified time.

The workmen were given a two weeks' pay and the merchants of Chester are all profiting by the large amount of money put in circulation.

THE PRESIDENT AT CHEYENNE

Listens to a Sermon on "Strenuousness" in the Morning and Visits Ranch in the Afternoon.

Cheyenne, Wyo., June 1.—Although Sunday was supposed to be entirely given over to rest by President Roosevelt, he was on the go most of the day. The chief executive and party attended the First Methodist church in the morning, where special services for the president were held. The Rev. Mr. Forsythe preached a beautiful sermon on "Strenuousness." Immediately at the close of the service carriages were taken to the residence of former Senator Carey, where luncheon was served. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Secretary to the President, Loeb, Assistant Secretary Barnes, Surgeon General Rixey, Captain Seth Bullock, Senator Warren, Governor and Mrs. Chatterton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Carey and Robert Carey were guests at luncheon.

In the afternoon a long procession of carriages, headed by the president and party, started for Senator Warren's ranches, 14 miles south of the city. Here the routine work on one of Wyoming's biggest ranches was shown the party. An elegant supper was served, after which the start for Cheyenne was made. When the president reached his hotel he was in jubilant spirits and remarked that he was looking forward with great pleasure to the frontier exhibition.

Previous to starting for the Warren ranches the Eagles lodge of this city presented President Roosevelt with a life membership in the order.

Secretary Moody, who has been with the presidential party since it entered California, left for Washington.

PITTSBURG RACE RIOT

Bloody Battle Between White Baseball Players and Negro Crap Shooters.

ATTEMPT TO LYNCH PRISONER

Two Thousand Men and Boys Participate in the Fray—Peacemaker Receives a Fatal Wound—Two Boys Shot.

Pittsburg, June 1.—Savage race riots of the south were outvalued in a bloody battle at High Bridge, on the Castle Shannon railroad. One negro was killed, two others were desperately wounded, two white boys were shot and severely hurt, a number of other persons were less seriously injured and only the merciful hand of apparent death spared Allegheny county from the horror of a lynching. Two thousand men and boys took part in the conflict and nearly 100 shots were exchanged.

For nearly half an hour an infuriated mob surrounded a building where two negro desperadoes held their assailants at bay until one was killed and his companion was driven to surrender himself to the crowd's vengeance by a fire which had been kindled around the frail structure. The dead:

Charles Keller, negro, of Pasture street, shot and killed. He was 30 years old and a well-known gambler in Pittsburg.

The wounded: William W. Davis, negro, aged 28, shot in back, beaten about head and body with stones and baseball bats; neck badly cut, where he was dragged by rope; will recover; is at South Side hospital.

Sandy Garrett, negro, aged 24, of Hill on South Eighth street; bullet two inches above heart, penetrated the lung; will die; is at South Side hospital.

Joseph Tominsky, a Pole, aged 18, Nelson Foster, negro, Herman Altenhof, aged 15 years, Knoxville; cut on forehead by flying stones.

Leo Karns, aged 14, Duquesne Heights.

The fight was the outgrowth of a reign of lawlessness which was being resumed at High Bridge. Negro gamblers from the city had followed the Sunday crowds which congregated there in the summer and attend the ball games played on a part of the grounds. A month ago the owners of the property notified the ball players that no more games could be played if the rough element was not kept away, and it was carrying out this order in the face of five armed negro gamblers that the trouble started.

An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." Sold by Alvin & Bulger.

WINDSORS LOST TWO GAMES

New Blood on the Local Y. M. C. A. Team Made Its Influence Felt.

GILT EDGED SUPPORT

Given to Pitcher Winters in Friday's Game—The Morning Game on Saturday the Only One Won by the Visitors.

The Y. M. C. A. team won two of three games played here Friday and Saturday, with the Windsors, of Allegheny. Winters pitched the game Friday, and was invincible, the visitors securing but five hits. As has been the case in the most of the games he has pitched this season, Winters' batting was a big factor. Principal interest centered in the new men, Miller, the left handed twirler, Keifer, the catcher and second baseman, and Lawrence, a right handed slab artist.

Contrary to the previous experience with new material, the entire bunch made good and Manager Reark should make every effort to keep them on the team. Keifer is from Delphos and has been playing on the fast amateur team representing that city. He played last year in the Michigan league. Miller has been playing this season in Cleveland. He has a puzzling delivery, his preliminary motions in delivering the ball being very deceptive. Lawrence is from the University of Maine and although his opening game was a loser, it was not the fault of his pitching.

The locals won the first game by superior stick work and the excellent slab work of Winters. His support was gilt edged, Gibson being the bright, particular star, helping out also in left field and seems to have found his batting eye. Brown, who was out of his regular position played a nice game at third, his throwing to first on slow grounders being of the sensational order. Following is the detailed score of Friday's game:

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT

Good, healthy flesh can only be gained by the use of proper food, together with natural action of the digestive organs. Nine people out of ten, in order to weigh as much as they ought and be perfectly healthy, should use Mi-na, the great flesh-forming food and digestive regulator. Weigh yourself before commencing to use these little tablets and see how your weight increases from week to week.

Mi-na does not contain a particle of pepsin, the basis of the ordinary dyspepsia remedy, and which never made a cure of dyspepsia. Mi-na has valuable flesh-forming properties, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs, helps digest the food eaten, and absolutely and permanently cures the worst forms of dyspepsia. If you are not perfectly satisfied with the results from Mi-na, Will Read will return your money without any questions. What other medicine is sold on this plan?

East End Athletics Lost Both Games at Pittsburgh on Saturday.

The East Liverpool Athletics was the attraction at Friendship park, Pittsburgh, Saturday, as opponents of the P. A. C. C. had their batting clothes on and had no trouble running up large scores in both games. Savey was on the rubber for six and one-half innings in the second game, but retired in favor of Taylor, who stopped the hitters' hitting. Aside from the pitching of Diebold, the fielding of Bridge, Heckathorne and Taylor, and the batting of the entire P. A. C. team were the features.

CANTON WON TWO OF THE GAMES

Wretched Playing on Both Sides in the Contests at Wellsville.

The Marines, of Canton, defeated the Wellsville boys two games out of three, which were played at Central park Friday and Saturday. The Canton team did not win by superior playing, but by pure luck more than anything else. Both teams played as though they never saw a ball before, thirty-five errors being made in the three games.

On Friday the game was interesting up to the fifth inning, the score standing 6 to 1 in Wellsville's favor. After the fifth the visitors scored six more runs, making 10. The home team scored two more, making 8, and when they came in for the ninth and last inning they needed three to win. Hamilton was equal to the emergency, and by a two-bagger, won the game.

In the Saturday morning game the Canton boys won in the second and seventh innings, scoring four runs in the second and two in the seventh. Patterson pitched a remarkably good game, striking out 12 men, but could not win alone. His support was very poor.

The home team on Saturday afternoon had the game practically won up to the fifth, when Riley got wild.

How To Tell A Swindle.

If a man tells you he can make 25 per cent. out of your money for you and don't tell you how, set it down as a swindle. If he offers you something for nothing, set it down as a swindle. If he tells you he can cure you of disease, and don't tell you how, set it down as a swindle. If you will exercise your own judgment, your own reason—just use a little common sense at all times, it is the safest guide. We tell you Life Plant cures rheumatism, Eczema, Catarrh, Asthma, Scrofula and all blood diseases, and we tell you why. It does it because it purifies the blood, drives out the impurities and thus removes the cause of disease. There is no other way. Now that's common sense. The blood is the life. Keep the blood pure, full of life, and the whole system will be renewed with new energy. Read this. It tells what Life Plant will do. It's from your neighbor:

Mr. J. C. Lukens, of Tippecanoe, Ohio, says: "I have been greatly relieved of Nervousness, Stomach and Kidney trouble by the use of Life Plant. As a family medicine to keep the blood in order and tone up the system and prevent sickness, I think it stands at the head of the list. Tippecanoe, March 1st, 1900. Life Plant Renew Life. An excellent tonic for the aged. It keeps the blood young, and insures a healthy and ripe old age. A whole month's treatment for $1.00."

POSTOFFICE SCANDAL

Charles Emory Smith's Letter
Practically Closes the
Tulloch Incident.

INVESTIGATED IRREGULARITIES

Evidence Adduced Believed to Be Justification of Transactions Complain of—Other Documents to Be Made Public Later.

Washington, June 1.—Postmaster General Payne made public the reply of former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith to the charges of former Cashier S. W. Tulloch, of the Washington city postoffice, regarding the postal administration. Mr. Smith says that he investigated the allegations of irregularities when they were made and that the evidence adduced in most cases was believed to be a justification of the transactions complained of, adding that the criticisms betrayed a lack of knowledge of conditions incident to the Spanish war and the measures necessary to meet the requirements. Mr. Payne said that Mr. Smith's letter practically closes the Tulloch incident, although other documents on the subject will be made public later. These include the replies of former First Assistant Postmaster General Heath and of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow, the report on the former investigation of the Tulloch charges, to which Mr. Smith refers, and the reports of the postoffice inspectors and civil service representatives who investigated the Washington postoffice. Owing to their great volume all the documents except Mr. Heath's reply will be briefed, although the documents themselves will be open to public inspection, if wanted. The first answer of Mr. Smith to the Tulloch charges will not be made public. Mr. Payne explained that Mr. Smith had forgotten about Mr. Tulloch's charges and the investigation he ordered, and that until the papers were accidentally found by Mr. Francis W. Whitney, secretary to Mr. Payne, it was not known that the charges had been investigated at the time. These papers showed that Mr. Smith had divided the charges into groups, noting directions for investigations to each group and subsequently recording against each group the results of the investigation. Mr. Payne said that Mr. Smith in his prior letter had entirely forgotten the Tulloch charges and did not recall the name or the fact that he had investigated the charges.

Posting of Names.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow has recommended to Postmaster General Payne that the order directing the posting of names of residents on rural free delivery routes in the postoffices on those routes be rescinded. No action has yet been taken on the recommendation. First Assistant Postmaster General Wynne and Fourth Assistant Bristow disagree on the question. The order was issued by Mr. Wynne as acting postmaster general and was approved by Mr. Payne when he returned from the West Indies. Mr. Payne said that he believes that the publicity attained through the order would add $1,000,000 a year to the postal revenues and in this way would help to make the service self-sustaining, and that he believed the publicity was in line with the doctrine of "the greatest good to the greatest number."

Mr. Payne said that the objections to the publicity given the names of the patrons came from the country newspapers, which are made more subject to competition from large papers; from the country store, which loses by the invasion of the aggressive advertising of the large mercantile houses in the cities and the wholesale stores of the cities, from which the country storekeepers get their stock—the mail order houses invading their field. Mr. Payne said that he would welcome an intelligent public discussion of the question.

Over Indulgence in the Flowing Bowl Got Most of Them Into Trouble.

Evidently Saturday's holiday induced a number of people to indulge in the flowing bowl. A bunch of drunks and others were caught in the police net Saturday and yesterday.

A man named Phillips, ejected from a street car by the conductor for disorderly conduct, picked up a brick and threw it at the car. Unfortunately for him and a companion he lingered long enough at the scene for Chief Wyman to nab him. He paid $8 and his companion $5.

Officer McDermott arrested Dora Smith, against whom a complaint was lodged by her husband, Mrs. Smith was in Shantytown when located and would have escaped arrest had she not become disorderly. On the way to central station Mrs. Smith took French leave of the officer, who had an exciting chase before he recaptured her.

Officer Woods arrested two young men, strangers in the city, and they paid their fines for drunkenness and were discharged.

Jim Penny and Charles Carragher, two old timers, got into the toils. The latter was given permission to make himself scarce.

James Flinn was arrested by Officer McDermott and charged with disorderly conduct. He paid a fine and was released.

James Jones was sent down from the East End by Officer Fisher. Jones had a jag and paid the usual fee.

Another capture by Fisher was William Dawson, who paid $6.00 for his jag.

John Hoskinson, arrested Saturday night, is thought by many to be guilty of smashing a $70 plate glass window in John Hoffman's saloon. The charge could not be proved and he was fined for being drunk and disorderly.

Destructive Fire at Racine.

Racine, Wis., June 1.—Fire swept the southern manufacturing district, doing about $300,000 damage. The losses in part are: Racine boat manufacturing factory, lumber, $115,000; J. I. Case, threshing machine shops, $150,000; Standard Oil company tanks and sheds, $25,000; half a dozen residences and small factories, $25,000. The fire started in the boiler room of the Racine Boat Manufacturing company and before the firemen arrived a tank of gasoline exploded. A tower of flame 300 feet high shot up into the air, but as it was Sunday no one was about the factory and no one was injured.

Ravages by Earthquake.

London, June 1.—The British consul at Erzerum reports that an official estimate places the number of persons killed in the earthquake in the Van district of Asiatic Turkey at 800, while the loss of cattle was incalculable, as, owing to the lateness of the spring, a large majority of the animals were indoors. Nearly a score of villages were completely destroyed and many more were partially demolished. The center of disturbance was in the neighborhood of Mount Gilpin.

Gave Himself Away.

After preaching on the occasion of the reopening of a restored church the bishop thanked the churchwarden, an old farmer, for his share in the good work. "And I must thank your lordship for your sermon," was the reply, "but I could not help thinking, as you talked about sin, that your lordship must have been a little wildish yourself when you were a young man."

FOR INVESTORS

An Opportunity to Purchase Gift Edged Bonds on Excellent Terms.

Special attention is called to the advertisement of The Colonial Trust Company, No. 317 Fourth avenue, Pittsburg, offering $900,000 bonds issued and guaranteed as to principal and interest by The Manufacturers' Light & Heat Company, of Pittsburg, and called The Manufacturers' Light & Heat Company's Wheeling Collateral Trust Bonds. The authorized issue is $2,500,000, of which $500,000 is reserved for the betterments of the plants of the Wheeling Natural Gas Company. They are dated February 2, 1903, and mature $200,000 each year until 1916. They bear interest at 6 per cent. per annum, and, at the price at which they are offered, will net the investor almost Five and Three-quarters per cent. The bonds are secured by the deposit of the capital stock of the Wheeling Natural Gas Company, which, at its market value at the time it was purchased by The Manufacturers' Light & Heat Company, was worth nearly $4,500,000. As the bonds are guaranteed by the Manufacturers' Light & Heat Company, they are additionally secured by the market value of its stock, which amounts to in the neighborhood of $18,500,000. The advertisement shows that the actual cash invested in the Wheeling Natural Gas Company properties is, approximately, $5,000,000; while the actual cash invested in The Manufacturers' Light & Heat Company properties amounts to $24,554,000. The latter company has cash on hand and cash assets of over $1,258,000; so that it makes a total property value securing the bonds offered for sale of more than $30,500,000, or almost ten for one. Both companies have been exceedingly prosperous and the indications are that they will be more so. At the time of its absorption, the Wheeling Natural Gas Company was paying 10 per cent. dividends on its capital stock and The Manufacturers' Light & Heat Company was paying 12 per cent. There are other bonds issued upon the Wheeling Natural Gas Company's assets and none can be issued until those are all retired.

Considering the magnitude of the property values and that of the market value of the stock, and the very small amount of bonded indebtedness, it would seem that the opportunity to invest in these bonds at the prices quoted is certainly, as the advertisement says, exceptional. All inquiries for information or the purchase of these bonds should be made of Mr. Alexander C. Thompson, Manager of the Bond Department of the Colonial Trust Company. 128-h

There Is Ground For Hope
That the Worst Danger Has Passed.

THE WATERS ARE SUBSIDING

Two Hundred People Drowned—Eight Thousand Homeless—Four Million Dollars Loss of Property—Fire Adds to the Horror.

Topeka, Kan., June 1.—There is ground for hope that the worst has passed. So treacherous has the Kansas river proven itself in the rising of the water, so slowly receding as to be imperceptible, the five-mile-wide stream is settling back into its rightful channel. City Engineer McCabe issued a bulletin giving out the cheering intelligence that the waters had subsided to the extent of exactly 7½ inches. It may be some hours before another drop may be noticed. With 175 or 200 lives lost; millions of dollars of property destroyed; with hundreds of pistol shots as signals of distress, blended with the agonizing cries of unwilling inhabitants of tree tops and roofs of houses, and the waters creeping upward and then slowly subsiding and alternately changing hope to despair, the capital city has passed the most memorable Sabbath day of its existence. Through all this disconcerting condition of affairs was added the presence of a cold, dismal rain.

The arduous work of the heroic rescuers was not abated in the least by the conditions which confronted them. For long, in the early hours, knee deep in water and sometimes in water up to their necks, they worked with might and main. Three hundred or more persons were rescued who otherwise might have been swept away in the current.

Havoc Wrought by Flood.
Briefly stated the present condition of the flood is this:
One hundred and seventy to 200 people drowned.
Eight thousand people without homes.
Four million dollars loss of property.
Identified dead, 5.
Floating bodies seen, 20.
People missing, 200.
Houses burned, result of fire in lumber from slacking line, probably 200.
Big business blocks almost ready to crumble, 50.
Rock Island trains containing 150 passengers held here by high water.
City water works plant useless.
The known dead: Karl Rupp, Orville Rupp, two Rupp girls, G. H. Garrett's 5-year-old son.
Twenty unidentified bodies.
Leading men have made a careful examination of the flood and all its conditions, and as a result of their investigation they give 250 as the probable number of lives lost. A more conservative estimate places the number of dead at 175. The higher number is as apt to be correct as the lower. The number of dead is merely a matter of guess. Twenty members of rescuing parties tell of how they saw people drop from houses to be swept away by the flood and others tell of men who, terrified at the approach of fire, dropped into the water, where they sank and did not reappear.

This estimated number of dead does not include the large number classed as missing, who cannot otherwise be accounted for. Neither does it include the number who are supposed to have lost their lives in the fire in the later class there is absolutely no means of arriving at even an approximate number of victims. The water is so high and the current so strong that all that can be done now is to rescue those in the buildings surrounded by water. It will be at least three days before the correct number of dead will be known. Work of rescuing the victims of the flood is being pushed with vigor. Better results have characterized the efforts of the organized forces since 4 o'clock in the afternoon than during all the preceding 24 hours. Two little steam launches are now puffing up and down the river picking up survivors. A larger steamboat is expected here by a special train on the Rock Island in 24 hours. If possible to run the train the boat will be brought to a point two miles above the city and launched there.

Contributions Flowing In.
Large contributions have already been received for the benefit of the sufferers. The amount given by Topeka citizens alone will aggregate $100,000. To this is to be added an immense quantity of clothing, provisions and general supplies. Outside towns have generously offered aid, notable among which is Galveston, Texas.

The portion of Topeka not affected by the flood is crowded with refugees and people from the surrounding country who have come to witness the flood conditions.

If the river shall not receive any more flood water west of here, the improvement in the situation here will be marked. If the water shall rise at Manhattan and Wamego a repetition of the worst of the flood scenes and the distress here will be greatly intensified. Either contingency is entirely within the range of possibility.
